Resignation of Councillor R. Philp Accepted At Regular Meeting

Customary Grant of $125 Given Stirling Agricultural Society — Drainage Plan

The resignation of Councillor Robt. Philp was accepted at the regular meeting of Village Council on Tuesday night.

Under the terms of the Municipal Act the action of Councillor Philp was necessary as he has been awarded the tender for a bus route for the Stirling-Rawdon District High School. Under the same act Wm. Webber, a defeated candidate at the last municipal election, will be offered the position. Should he decline the position a Nomination Meeting and election, if necessary, will be required. Reeve C. Bateman presided and all members of Council were present.

Grant For Community Centre

A communication was tabled from the Ontario Department of Agriculture, re grant to the Community Centre and Clerk Pollock stated a cheque for $1100 had been received and deposited to the credit of the local Community Council.

A request from R. E. Shortt, Secretary of the local Agricultural Society for the customary grant of $125 was granted on motion of Chambers and Anderson.

Notice of a meeting of the Board of Transport Commissioners in Lindsay on September 19th to deal with the application by the C.N.R. to discontinue passenger train service on the Belleville-Toronto line, via Lindsay, was tabled.

Drainage Scheme

A lay-out of the proposed drainage system for the Front St. W. and Frankford Rd. area from Mather Associates, engineers, was tabled. After consulting with H. E. Cooke, who was present, Council agreed to have him prepare an estimate of the cost. Council will then present the plan and figures to the parties involved for their disposition.

The report of Chief of Police D. Ketcheson was tabled and adopted by Council.

New Sub-Division

D. W. Rodgers addressed Council re the street to a new sub-division he is opening west of Highway No. 14 on the Belleville road. A plan of the sub-division was tabled and following a lengthy discussion, during which a sample by-law covering the new sub-division was gone over clause by clause, the applicant agreed to its provisions and Council instructed the Clerk to prepare the necessary by-law which will be given its first and second readings at an early meeting of Council. In the meantime G. French, Municipal Engineer from the Department of Highways, will be asked to inspect the sub-division and advise Council as to its acceptance. Final reading of the bylaw will be delayed until approval is received from the various municipal Boards.

Prepayment of Frontage

J. V. Holt interviewed Council regarding prepayment of the frontage tax for sewerage. It was pointed out that citizens had the privilege of prepaying this tax in a lump sum rather that over a thirty-year term, up to three years after the installation of the sewerage system. Any such payments would be remitted directly to the Ontario Water Resources Commission and thus reduce the capital debt and save interest charges to be paid by the municipality.

Mr. Holt also addressed Council regarding street signs and displayed samples of signs processed by Rosco.

Reeve Bateman stated the local Streets Committee would meet the County Road Committee in an effort to speed up work on the Mill Street extension of the Ridge Road.

Councillor J. Chambers introduced the question of fire protection for residents bordering the Village limits in the adjacent Townships. It was pointed out that there were no existing agreements with either Rawdon or Sidney Townships and while it was regrettable, under the present conditions, the local Fire Brigade was not permitted to go outside the Village limits. The matter was left in abeyance for future consideration.

Change of Date Garbage Collection

A lengthy discussion ensued on the advisability of changing the date of garbage collection in the residential section of the Village. It was the consensus of Council that if Monday for residential and Tuesday forenoon for commercial were adopted it would facilitate the work of the street foreman and his assistance. Therefore commencing nept week the garbage collection will be on Monday for the residential section and Tuesday forenoon for the commercial.

Stirling Cubs Enjoy Annual Camp At Presqu'ile Provincial Park

(By Wendell Camm)

Many adults cherish the memory of a pleasant camping experience of their childhood. For thirty-two Cubs of Stirling and Marmora such a memory has been made possible through the camp held from July 29th to August 4th in Presqu'ile Provincial Park at Brighton. Stirling's veteran Cub-master, Mr. Joe Irish, presided over his tenth consecutive camp, assisted by the following leaders: From Stirling, Mrs. Joe Irish and Mrs. Burton Woodbeck with two service Scouts, Bill West and Grant Hagerman, and from Marmora, Mrs. John VanVolkenburg. Mrs. John Belanger, of Marmora, was camp cook. Mr. Wendell Camm, of Stirling, assisted as driver and purchaser.

Although the boys did not reach camp until Saturday afternoon, a good deal of preparation had preceded their arrival. The large tent that housed the kitchen and dining hall was rented from the Trenton Scouts. Large tarpaulins lent to the Cubs were used to cover the ground in this tent to help with sanitation. Three ice boxes were set up for perishable foods, and three cooking units using gas fuel helped make possible appetizing food for the campers. One of the leaders was able to prepare ahead of time ten raspberry pies for the Sunday night supper, and a huge chocolate cake made by a second leader was another popular addition to camp fare. Nine Bell tents were lent by the Army for sleeping quarters, a crafts centre and a first aid tent. Three other tents for the leaders brought the total for the camp to thirteen. Men from Stirling helped Mr. Irish set up the tents on the Thursday night before camp opened. The Cubs and their leaders are indebted to Bob Cooke, Carl Cooke, Earl Dafoe, Don McIntosh, Doug McIntosh, Carl Pitman, Donnie Pitman, Russell West and Ron Woodbeck for this worthwhile assistance and to West's Creamery and Bob Cooke for the loan of trucks.

A month before the camp opened, menus were planned and lists of needed supplies drawn up so that almost nothing was forgotten (unless the small funnel needed to fill the gasoline lantern be included). A program for each day was carefully organized, and the result was that the boys found they had interesting and varied activities.

The Cubs were divided into six groups and chose a name and colour for their Six. The Black Six (the Mohawks) included Frank Camm, Tim Doran, Robert Reynolds, Wayne Mayell and Gary Richardson. The Red Six (the Black Eagles) had Graydon Irish, Jerry Williams, David Thompson, Robert Cooke and Bob McIntosh. In the White Six (the Sioux) were Brian Cooke, Joey Scott, Paul McTaggart, Rickie Fluke and Douglas Irish. The Green Six (the Tomahawks) consisted of Allan Duffin, Bill Bell, Jimmy Duffin, Gary Walker, Jim Trumble and Evan Rodgers. The Blue Six (the Iroquois) was made up of Bob West, Wally Harding, John West, Ken Green and Peter Little. Members of the Grey Six (the Apaches) were Bill Baker, Keith Fenton, Donnie Armstrong, Peter Heath, Greg Dafoe and Mark McNamara.

Possibly the highlight of each day was the campfire. This took place at eight o'clock each night in a beautiful tree-surrounding setting. Songs, many with appropriate actions, stories given by the leaders and skits by the different Sixes stimulated some serious thinking as well as merriment.

Many of the Cubs had the experience for the first time of looking after themselves without parental

Horticulturists Enjoy Tour

Motoring across some of Ontario's most scenic and fertile country, one hundred and eleven people from Stirling and surrounding district recently enjoyed a day of wonderful sightseeing and good fellowship.

Three very comfortable buses with their congenial and careful bus drivers left Stirling at 6 a.m. July 24th and proceeded first to the Sheridan Nurseries near Toronto where the passengers were free to wander and view the beautiful flowers, trees and shrubbery. The display of roses was outstanding.

The next stop was at Hamilton Botanical Gardens — a valley paradise of 10 square miles. In the Spring Garden were beautiful Day Lilies while the Memorial Garden was gay with Azaleas and Rhododenrons. In the beautiful Rock Gardens were Tuberous Begonias, Snapdragons and countless summer annuals, interspersed with artistic pools and water-lily displays. There was also a Children's Garden, Arboretum and Nature Trails. These gardens are truly one of our Province's outstanding beauty spots. Another spot of interest was the Dundurn Castle Museum.

Proceeding in a south-easterly direction the buses drove on to Queenston to view historic Brock's Monument and the flower bed arrangements surrounding it. The Ontario Hydro Floral Clock was an outstanding sight of interest. Approximately 24,000 colorful plants make up the design of the clock face which covers an area of 1,130 sq. ft. At the first frost the plants are lifted and those indicating the hours on the dial are replaced with stone chips of white limestone and pink granite. Of stainless steel tubing, the three hands are counter-balanced with lead so that they require the same turning effect in all positions of their sweep. The 500 pound hour hand is 14 feet 6 inches long with the 500 pound minute hand 17 feet 6 inches long. The 250 pound sweep second hand measures 21 feet.

Niagara Falls was the next scheduled stopping-off spot where the travellers viewed acre upon acre of beautiful horticultural displays. The natural surroundings of the Niagara Parks are in themselves superb, and throughout the entire district man's best art and utmost skill has combined with nature to form and maintain gardens and sites rich in history, beauty, relaxation and recreation.

From the lush parkland we were taken to see "Mighty Niagara" with its massive ruggedness and thundering waters. Besides viewing the surroundings of luxuriant foliage, flowering gardens and beautiful greenery, the sun came out in all its glory and formed a spectacular rainbow arching the gorge in colorful beauty. The Oaks Garden Theatre was unique with its more formal architectural and horticultural effects such as terraces, fountains and miniature falls.

And so with the sound of "Mighty Niagara" still sounding in our ears, and the sights of beautiful gardens pictured on our memories we wended our way homeward, stopping at Prudhomme for evening dinner. Truly a memorable and happy day full of beauty, of fun, and genuine camaradie.

The pallbearers were Messrs Percy Craighead, John Sheridan, Ernest Cain, Sheldon McIntosh, Charles Davidson and Cecil Macklin.

Mrs. C. Nix Hostess To Wellman's W.A.

The Woman's Association of Wellman's United Church held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Carman Nix on Tuesday, August 1st with 11 adults and three children present.

Mrs. Jack Dunham presided, opening the meeting with everyone singing the theme hymn and repeating the theme prayer.

The theme for the worship service prepared by Mrs. Wifred Sine was "Light." The hymn, "O Love That Wilt Not Let Me Go" was sung. Mrs. Kenneth Tompkins read the Scripture Lesson, St. Matthew 5: 14-16. Mrs. John Carlisle commented on the Scripture reading, showing that we are figured as God's Light in spreading His word and plans across the world. The hymn "Lead Kindly Light," was sung, followed by prayer by Mrs. Omar Dracup.

Little Miss Dawn Beckett took up the offering which was dedicated by Mrs. Dunham.

Arrangements for a pie social following the anniversary was discussed. Permission was given Mrs. Gerald Clancy to get new books for the choir.

The programme, prepared by Mrs. John Rainie, was as follows: Reading, "Summer Days," by Mrs. John Carlisle; solo, "My God I Thank Thee," by Mrs. Kenneth Tompkins; reading, "Childhood Vacation," by Mrs. A. Akins; piano solo, "Bluebird of Happiness," by Mrs. Frederick Beckett.

Mrs. Dunham thanked all taking part in the proceedings and those preparing the programme and worship service; also the hostess, Mrs. Nix. Mrs. Dunham pronounced the benediction.

Mrs. A. Akins conducted a contest after which dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and her assistants and all enjoyed a social half hour.

"Men," advised French writer Madeline de Scudery, "should keep their eyes wide open before marriage and half shut afterwards."

Reservations for this trip must be in the F.W.I.O. office not later than September 5th.

In May 1962 a return trip is being planned through the Huronic area, a stop over at the Adelaide Hoodless Homestead, a visit to the Niagara Peninsula and the famous Botanical Gardens at Hamilton and thence to Stoney Creek, the home of the Ontario Institutes.

Mrs. E. C. Hay-Ellis read an invitation to all members of River Valley W.I. to attend the official opening of Hastings County Museum on Wednesday, August 9th. Mrs. Hay-Ellis is the River Valley W.I. representative and she stated that the museum will be open, free to the public until December 10th, 1961. It will be open fiev afternoons from 2 to 5 p.m. and evenings 7 to 10 p.m. The museum will feature the Couldery Collection of antiques as well as a large number of articles from the River Valley area, which have been donated or loaned.

As River Valley W.I. kindly catered on Boxing Day of this year at the Hickson Sales Barns, they have been given the date of January 8th, 1962 for this group. The ladies hope it will be a good sale night.

Mrs. Ross Bush and Mrs. Percy MacMullen gave prices on various articles that could be purchased as individual gifts for their Friendship Link Institute in Bristol, England. It was decided that Mrs. Ross Bush write one firm re calendars and further plans will be made in September.

Mrs. Percy MacMullen, President West Hastings District W.I., gave Public Relations and District business.

The District Workshop on "Women's Institute Procedures" will be held at River Valley School Kitchen on Wednesday, March 7th, 1962, with two sessions and each lady will provide her own box lunch. Mrs. James Haggerty, newly elected president of the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada will conduct the workshop. River Valley Branch will be hostess and all District officers are expected to attend if possible. Individual Institute members are very welcome. The new Handbooks will be the basis of study.

The Lady Directors of Stirling Fair are giving a $2.00 prize to all Institutes who display six articles of their 1960-61 project. The Training School this year was based on "Window Treatment" and several curtains and drapes were displayed at the District Annual held in May.

It is hoped that the West Hastings District will be able to sponsor an evening in February 1962 in honour of Adelaide Hoodless and the 65th year of Institute organization in Ontario.

This organization came about through the death of a small child, whose mother determined that she would do all in her power to see that future generations of women should be better informed.

In view of this organization in 1897 Mrs. L. G. Lymburner, Provincial President and the F.W.I.O. Board Members have chosen as their project for the next twelve months the "Foster Parent Plan" under the direction of The Canadian Save the Children Fund. To date several Branches have adopted children through this plan at a cost of sixty dollars per year and Miss Jayne Gay has read excellent reports from Institutes in Northumberland in recent radio broadcasts. River Valley W.I. will deal with this project when the attendance is larger and half of the membership present to take part in the discussions.

Mrs. Roy Tucker read a very interesting article from the Countrywoman magazine. This is a wonderful organization with able dedicated leadership. It has high goals and is ever giving an increasing effective voice in international programmes. This organization is centred around six million homes and it could generate a force that would revolutionize the world.

Mrs. Tucker collected the Pennies for Friendship and reported over two dollars for July. Miss Judy Donohoe gathered the Institute collection.

Hubel -- Melville Wedding

St. John's United Church, Creemore, was the scene of a pretty summer wedding ceremony recently when the Rev. D. J. Miller officiated at the marriage ceremony uniting Miss Donna Ruth Melville, daughter of Mr. Clifford Melville and the late Mrs. Melville, of Creemore, to James Richard Malcolm Hubel, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hubel, of Stirling.

The wedding music was provided by Mrs. R. O. Skinkle, of Collingwood. The soloist, Mr. Douglas Pyear, of Stirling, cousin of the groom, sang "O Perfect Love" and "Lord God the Holy Ghost." The ushers were Mr. Glenn Hubel, of Stirling, and Mr. Harold Davidson, of Dunedin.

The beautiful young bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a full length white organza gown embroidered in silk. Short sleeves and a scalloped neckline complemented the very wide full skirt. A white tiara held the fully gathered white organaza veil in place and her bouquet was pink and white roses.

The bride's attendants were Miss Audrey Hopkinson, of Cherry Valley, as maid of honour, and Miss Dawn Hubel, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid. Both wore identical street-length dresses of pink and white flocked nylon over taffeta. Wide pink cumberbunds met to form ties at the back. They wore single orchid hats and short white veils.

The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Dale Hubel, Clinton.

Following the ceremony the reception was held in the Church Hall where the seventy-five guests were received by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Aikins, assisted by Miss Dawn Hubel, sister of the groom.

Mr. C. Carter, of Agincourt, was master of ceremonies and proposed the toast to the bride, which was acknowledged by the groom.

The bride's going away costume was a beige two-piece sheath shantung dress, brown pumps and gloves, beige purse and beige orchid hat.

Following their honeymoon they will reside at Agincourt where both are engaged in school teaching.

Guests attended from Toronto, Harriston, Stirling, Frankford and the immediate area.

The bride's many shower and wedding gifts were displayed at the home of the bride's father at Creemore.

HOME FREEZERS

Have you opened your freezer this week? Is your freezer more than half full? A no answer to both these questions indicates that your freezer is not paying its way in saving you time and effort. It means it is being poorly used and has become an expensive luxury.

Actually the home freezer should be used everyday — with food moving in and food moving out. To do this — to get the greatest possible use out of your freezer — good management and careful planning are essential. The Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, suggests you check the following points which will lead to better management of your freezer.

1. Do you regularly defrost and clean your freezer according to the manufacturer's directions? Are the controls on the freezer set according to these directions? Is the placement of food in the freezer similar to that suggested in the directions which came with it? Proper care is essential for good operation; correct temperatures maintain top quality in frozen foods; correct placement saves valuable freezer space.

2. Do you label all packages with the name of the food, the date frozen or in the case of commercial food, the date purchased?

3. Do you keep an up-to-date inventory or stock sheet of the contents of the freezer, recording all foods as they are put in and checking them off as they are taken out?

If you have answered no to either questions 2 and 2 you may be keeping food beyond its maximum storage life. Check your inventory against the following table and plan to use up any food nearing the end of its recommended storage lift. The maximum storage life is based at 0 degs. F.

Home Frozen Food

Fruits, Vegetables and Herbs, one year.

Meat

Beef roast, steaks, 10 to 12 months; Veal roasts, chops, Pork roasts and Lamb chops, 4 to 5 minths; Pork chops, Variety meats (liver, heart, kidney, etc.), 3 to 4 months; Pork (cured, smoked), Bacon, and Cooked meats (stews, loaves, etc.), 1 to 2 months; Sausages and Wieners, Cooked roasts, Minced meat (raw), 2 to 3 months; Lamb roasts, 6 to 8 months; Gravy (unthickened), 3 to 4 months.

Poultry

Chicken and Turkey, 1 year; Geese and Ducks, 3 months; Cut-up poultry, 6 months.

Eggs

Eggs, 4 months.

Prepared Foods

Breads, pies, sandwiches, soups, saules, casseroles, etc., 4 months.

Careful planning results in the greatest possible use of your freezer. This requires a good look at the family's food habits, likes and dislikes, shopping habits and food budget.

Here are a few questions to ask yourself when you are planning for a new freezing season.

1. How much food from the garden or nearby market will be frozen at home? Only reasonably priced top quality food should be frozen. Foods such as root vegetables available all year take up valuable space unnecessarily.

2. How much of one kind of food will be used during the time it is not available in fresh supply? For example, how often will asparagus or strawberries be used during the fall and winter months? If once a week for an 8 month period approximately 30 packages of each should be frozen. Will a side of beef be a good investment or would a quarter of beef be a better buy? Or would it be more economical to stock up on beef cuts when they are advertised as "special" buys?

3. Does the convenience of baked foods and made-up dishes justify their taking up space which could be used for other less readily available foods?

4. Are frozen foods used regularly so that there is room in the freezer for new foods coming to the market? For example, a large quantity of berries and asparagus may be frozen leaving no room for peaches, or corn when their peak season arrives.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

ON THE EDGE OF DISASTER

Poets and other sensitive people tell us that if we wish to live fully we should always be aware that life is lived on the edge of disaster.

Disaster struck our normal placid lives last week when our pony, Mite (short for Dynamite), took sick with the colic. We were all fond of Mite; and my daughter, Kathy, who owns him, was crazy over him — but she didn't quite realize it until Mite was nearly lost.

Today, Mite is well again, and doubly loved and enjoyed. Having nursed him to survival through one dangerous night, he'll always mean more to us. And to the good neighbour who stayed up most of the night with us to keep him on his feet.

When trouble comes, we find things out about life and its worth. There ought to be some magic attitude that would keep us aware of such values the whole year through, in good times or bad, so that we would react more deeply to friends and neighbours, family and surroundings.

Perhaps life lived at such a pitch would be a strain on the nervous system. I doubt it. I think we die a little during the placid lulls in our lives. We are keener, finer, richer when we face trouble and see something valued on the point of departing.

This week-end I watched a group of newcomers to Canada rollicking on a public beach close to our cottage. Many of these newcomers had lived a long time behind the iron curtain. They enjoy and appreciate the freedom and abundance they find here in Canada — enjoy it far more than we natives do, who take so much of it for granted.

Life is a hazardous business and nothing should be taken for granted. Each day that the sun rises should find us filled with gratitude to be alive and breathing, with friends and family close by, and work to do. We should live as if this were the last day granted to us. What a difference it would make!

Descendants of Pioneer U.E.L. Nehemiah Hubble, Hold Reunion

(By Mrs. Percy MacMullen)

On Sunday, July 30th, one week later than usual, the 12th annual Hubble reunion was held at Frankford Memorial banquet hall with approximately 40 members of the clan in attendance. There were also two visitors, Miss Frances Hinchliffe, of Toronto, a sister of Mrs. Everett Hubble, Belleville, and Miss Connie Sills, Toronto, a sister of Mrs. Burton Hubble.

A picnic luncheon was served on long tables and the executive committee served ice cream.

Mrs. Arthur Pyear officiated at the piano and grace was sung previous to the meal.

Following the dinner hour Messrs. Burton Hubble and John Schwass supervised the games and races for the children. All received a balloon and a candy treat. The adults enjoyed a social hour in the park as it was a lovely summer day.

At three o'clock President Elton Hubble, of Campbellford R.R. 4, presided over the business portion which was held in the hall where the group had assembled. The National Anthem was sung and the president welcomed the two visitors and Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Hubble, of Peterborough.

Prizes Awarded

The prizes were awarded as follows: Youngest child, Jane Ellen Hubble, 18 month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Hubble; oldest person in attendance, Mr. Ernest Hubble, of Foxboro; youngest married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hubel, Stirling R.R. 3 (eight years); longest married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hubble, Foxboro, (almost 54 years); family coming farthest distance, Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Hubble, of Peterborough; birthday nearest date of picnic, Duane Pyear.

A period of silence was observed for one deceased member, Mrs. Russel Hubel (Keitha), who had served on the Historical Committee and last autumn made arrangements for printing the Hubble History when it is in readiness. She will be greatly missed by the clan.

Mrs. Russell Pyear read the 1960 minutes and reported a bank balance of $23.55 in the Hubble picnic fund.

1962 Reunion

After some discussion it was decided to hold the 1962 reunion at Little Lake on the fourth Sunday of July. Elton Hubble will be in charge of the arrangements and accommodation will be provided indoors in case of rain.

It was suggested that a card be forwarded to Mrs. Lorne Hubble, wife of the first president, who is residing at Golden Plough Lodge, Cobourg. The names of all the family members will be inscribed on the card.

The secretary is also sending a card to Edward Montgomery, who is a resident of Hastings County Home in Belleville. His deceased wife was the former Bertha Amelia Wescott, of Mount Pleasant Rawdon, a great granddaughter of the pioneer Nehemiah Hubble.

Address

A most informative address was given by Miss Connie Sills, who had been engaged in the interdenominational Youth Organization. In 1960 she attended the annual conference in Switzerland and gave several reminiscences of that memorable trip. The president expressed a gracious "thank you" to the speaker for her interesting message.

The pioneer, Nehemiah Hubble, came to Canada in 1784 with the United Empire Loyalists to Adolphustown. He and his brother treked to Rawdon Township and built a shack in the wilderness, later called "Hubble Hill" on the Stirling-Campbellfoard Road. The Hubble Hill pioneer Cemetery was instituted in 1870 and previous to that the place was renamed Mount Pleasant Rawdon.

Settled Permanently

In 1788 Nehemiah settled permanently at Hubble Hill with a wife and nine children. He was 66 years of age. He had served in the Loyalist Army in the United States and after registering at Ernestown near Kingston, he was given Crown land in Rawdon Township.

Both Nehemiah and his wife, Lucinda, died at Hubble Hill and were buried in a secluded spot on the land they had cleared from the wilderness.

The clan members, who gather for the reunion are from six members of that first family. The largest connection comes from the John Hubble family, followed by Elijah Allan, Reuben and Peter.

Officers Elected

Mr. Everett Hubble, Belleville, conducted the election of the following officers: President, Burton Hubble, Belleville R.R. 5; Vice-President, Mrs. Percy MacMullen, Stirling R.R. 3; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Russell Pyear, 19 Strathcona Drive, Belleville; Corresponding Secretaries, Mrs. John McColl and Mrs. Don Terry, Frankford; Sports Committee, Glenn Hubel, Stirling R.R. 3, and John Schwass, Stockdale; arrangement for 1962 picnic, Elton Hubble; Historian, Mrs. Percy MacMullen; Treasurer of the Book Fund, Clifford Hubble, Frankford R.R. 3; Assistant to Book Committee, Mrs. Don Terry, Frankford.

The four presidents for the past 11 years have been as follows: 1950-52, the late Lorne Hubble; 1953-55, Everett Hubble; 1956-59, Cecil Hubble; 1960-61. Elton Hubble.

The new president spoke briefly and urged that all members of the clan encourage others to attend the 1962 reunion.

The historian was unavoidably absent, however, at some future date, she hopes to have time to complete the necessary writing and have a readable account of the pioneer families during the past 177 years.

In February, a message was received from the relatives in the United States, who are busy tracing the Hubble ancestors, who came on the U.E.L. pilgrimage and settled in Cornwall, probably cousins of Nehemiah Hubble.

Monthly Meeting Springbrook W.A.

The regular monthly meeting of Springbrook W.A. was held at the Church basement on Thursday afternoon. The President, Mrs. Webb, opened the meeting with prayer. All sang the theme hymn and repeated the theme prayer and W.A. prayer.

Mrs. Bert McCoy conducted the devotional part of the meeting. The theme was "The World." Psalm 24 was read in unison. Mrs. Percy Bateman read the Scripture. The lesson thoughts were read by Mrs. James Spry and the prayer for the missionary was given by Mrs. McCoy.

Roll call was answered by naming a Senior Citizens' Home. The members reported 39 cards sent and sixteen calls made to sick and shut-ins. Mrs. Gordon Bailey will be the visiting committee for August.

The annual bazaar will be held in September with Mrs. H. Jairath, of Madoc, guest speaker. The following committee was appointed: Convener, Mrs. Ralph Wellman; Mrs. D. Fleming, Mrs. C. Burkitt, Mrs. C. Sine, Mrs. Ed. Bateman and Mrs. Lorne Bailey.

It was decided to collect material suitable to make mattresses for Korea.

The Parsonage Committee are to make arrangements for improvements to the parsonage.

Programme

Topic, "Senior Citizens," by Mrs. Wallace McInroy; readings, Mrs. Arthur Neal, Mrs. Chas. Gordanier and Mrs. Murney Mason; musical contest, Mrs. Ralph Wellman. The meeting closed with prayer.

Lunch was served by the hostesses and their assistants.

THE BIBLE TODAY

In Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, ownership of the fine Bible House premises which were dedicated in February, 1947, "To the glory of God and the wider circulation of Holy Scriptures" was transferred from the American Bible Society to the Solcidade Biblica do Brasil.

The American Bible Society authorized this generous gesture in July of this year. Dr. Layton E. Holmgren, Executive Secretary, in handing over the deeds said, "With this gift go our hopes and prayers that in Brazil, as in all the world, the day will not be far distant when every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the Glory of the Father."

The occasion was also marked by the retirement of the two fraternal Secretaries, Mr. C. H. Morris of the British and Foreign Bible Society and Mr. O. K. K. Nelson of the American Bible Society.

The Brazil Bible Society has had phenomenal success in the distribution of the Scriptures since World War II.

guidance. Tents had to be kept tidy and a daily inspection helped to add or take away points from a Six's total. That the Cubs succeeded satisfactorily in caring for themselves was shown partly by the fact that the cot in the first-aid tent was not used. The parents of the Cubs had their fears of their sons' homesickness diminished on receiving letters from them. One mother was made feel quite girlish again when her son left off the customary "Mrs." on the letter's envelope and used her Christian name instead of her husband's.

The Cubs were able to qualify for various badges such as first-aid, observer, swimmer, guide. The nature trail was carefully explored, and the treasure hunt and Indian Day will long be remembered. On August 1st and 3rd the birthdays of Graydon Irish, Allan Duffin, Gary Walker and Rickie Fluke were celebrated. Special birthday cakes lent a festive air to the dining table on both days.

Excellent competition prevailed at the field day. The greatest number of points for boys over ten year was won by Bill Bell and for boys under ten years by Peter Little. Winners of the events were: running race over ten, Bill Bell, Keith Fenton; running race under ten, Peter Little, Doug Irish; high jump over ten, Frank Camm; high jump under ten, Doug Irish; broad jump over ten, Bob West; broad jump under ten, Robert Cooke; ball throwing over ten, Jim Trumble; ball throwing under ten, David Thompson; sack race under ten, Peter Little, Jerry Williams, Wayne Mayell; sack race over ten, Bill Bell, Gary Richardson, Donnie Armstrong; wheelbarrow race over ten, Bob West and Brian Cooke, Keith Fenton and Donnie Armstrong; wheelbarrow race under ten, Peter Little and Robert Cooke, Jerry Williams and David Thompson; peanut race over ten, Bill Bell, Wally Harding, Graydon Irish; peanut race under ten, David Thompson, Bob McIntosh, Wayne Mayell; three-legged race over ten, Bill Bell and Evan Rodgers, Brian Cooke and Bob West, Jim Duffin and Allan Duffin; three-legged race under ten, David Thompson and Jerry Williams, Gary Walker and Rickie Fluke, Greg Dafoe and Bob McIntosh.

TIPS ON PASTURE MANAGEMENT THAT WILL PAY DIVIDENDS

1. Rotate pastures. Even though you may be on the short side of pasture, it will pay you to divide fields to "rest" the plants. This will help avoid killing-out your valuable pasture.
2. Mow pastures, as soon as they begin to get rank, so the tender milk-producing shoots can come on.
3. Plant or build shade in pasture to give your cows an opportunity to reduce body temperature on hot days.
4. Pipe water to your cows, if no natural springs or sources are near. Tests have shown that plenty of conveniently-located, pure water will help your cows give lots more milk.
5. Spray cows weekly with Purina Dairy Spray Concentrate mixed with water. This will give your cows relief from flies and permit better use of pasture.
6. Supplement your pasture. Your pasture does contain nutrients, but it also contains a high percentage of water and bulk. Your cows can't eat all the pasture they need to obtain the nutrients they require for top milk production. Why not give me a call, or drop in at my Store with the Checkerboard Sign, I'd like to tell you how you can supplement your pasture with a little Purina High-Efficiency Milking Ration. This is one good way to make your milk profits grow.

Careless Gun Handling Results In Boy Being Shot

Two boys, one fifteen and one thirteen, were preparing to have a day's outing from a place they were staying at Kaladar recently, when the accident happened — and it certainly could have been avoided.

Each boy had a .22 rifle. The thirteen year old could not legally have a firearm, but he did. He had loaded the rifle and then THOUGHT he had unloaded it. With the weapon pointing in his companion's direction, he pulled the trigger. It was loaded alright and the bullet passed through the arm of the older boy.

This accident is more than just carelessness. Te legality has been pointed out. No person of this age can possess a firearm under the Criminal Code and fifteen years is the minimum age for obtaining a license and only after the person has qualified by passing a Hunter Safety Training course under regulations as set forth by the Department of Lands and Forests.

As the accident happened only recently the Department has not yet received the full particulars.

If the parents permitted this thirteen year old to have a weapon capable of killing, they are at fault and liable.

It is natural for young boys to want a gun. But first teach him to respect it and show him how to use it safely. If your boy is fifteen or over and has a permit, make sure he knows enough to never let a youngster handle it.

A .22 rifle is a lethal weapon, capable of killing someone a mile away. It's killing potential is increased tremendously when in the hands of the young and inexperienced.

At the cost of a severely injured arm, let this accident serve as a lesson to all parents. Keep the .22 away from the boy and the boy away from the .22.

Doctors Shrink Cancer By New Method

Doctors in Minneapolis, Minn., have shrunk cancers with radio-active beads the size of grains of salt. The new technique has been used on 12 patients at Ancker Hospital, men and women whose cancers didn't respond to standard treatment. The cancers were in bladder, prostrate gland, lung, breast and brain.

The treatment decreased size of the cancers in two of the patients, one with cancer of the breast and the other with lung cancer. There may have been decreases in the other cancers too, but the hidden nature of these didn't permit observation.

When injected by the thousands into an artery leading to an organ, the beads spread the organ's bloodstream and get wedged in tiny blood vessels because they're too big to go farther.

Attacking cancer with radiation is not new. But, it was believed here, no one has succeeded before in getting radiation to a specific area, keeping it there and avoiding its spread to other healthy parts of the body.

Canada Might Run Out of Parks Land

Canada, a land of vast open spaces, is running dangerously short of land suitable for parks and outdoors recreation.

That blunt warning will be given to the National Resources for Tomorrow Conference in Montreal next October by a group of experts who are preparing conference papers on recreation.

Some of their comments:

"We will face great shortages of land of the right type in the right amount at the right places to meet recreation needs", Lloyd Brooks of the National Parks Branch, Ottawa.

"Over 80 percent of the area (available) is associated with the northern barrens and non-productive forest belt. Accessibility is poor and natural limitations are severe" — W. M. Baker, consultant for Hunting Technical and Exploration Services, Toronto.

"In the populated sections of Canada almost all lands have long since passed into private hands. The cost of recapturing these lands through purchase is high. It is the paramount problem and it can only be solved." —Community Planning Association, Toronto.

Rawdon Tax Rate 47.5 Mills Set At Special Meeting Tuesday Night

At a special meeting of Rawdon Council held on Tuesday night the tax rate for 1961 was set at 47.5 mills for farms and residential and 51.6 for commercial.

Reeve Kenneth Mumby presided and was supported by Deputy-Reeve Frederick Beckett and Councillors Burton Morton, Ronald Brown and M. Johnston.

Following a careful study of the finances of the Township, the following rates were established: County rate, 20.1 mills; Township rate, 4.8 mills; Road levy, 10 mills; and High School Area, 17.7 mills, making a total of 52.6 mills. As the result of a grant re Children's Aid Society, this reduced the mill rate to 51.6 mills for commercial rate. The Government per capita grant makes a further reduction of 5.1 mills for a rate of 47.5 mills on residential and farm assessments.

This is an increase of slightly over 2 mills over the 1960 tax rate.

Mt. Pleasant W. Miss. Society

The August meeting of Mt. Pleasant Woman's Missionary Society was held at the Church Hall on Wednesday afternoon with eighteen adults and seven children in attendance.

The President welcomed the visitors and all read in unison the 95th Psalm. Mrs. Garth Joslin officiated at the piano. Mrs. John Mulheron offered prayer for our Missionary, Miss Verna M. Crook, B.A., of the Children's Home, India.

Six members answered the roll call. The Baby Band report showed a total to date of $28.00. The Travelling Basket netted $16.00 at the end of June. The Treasurer's report showed expenses for the sixtieth anniversary and a balance of flower and lunch money. It was decided to purchase the new adult study packet at a cost of $3.00.

Mrs. Don Knight read a story "The Challenge of Stewardship." The President voiced thanks to all for their cooperation in June and Mrs. Garth Joslin voiced thanks on behalf of the programme committee. The 60th Anniversary was a success.

A nominating committee will be appointed at a later meeting when there is a larger attendance of W.M.S. members. Either life or annual paid members for 1961 are eligible.

One of the members presented the W.M.S. library with three new books, "Country Parson," "Arctic Bride" and "Along the Road" in lieu of the book that was inadvertently lost and cannot be replaced as it is out of print.

Mrs. Percy MacMullen, Literature Secretary of Belleville Presbyterial, introduced the new study for 1961-62 based on "Churches For New Times." This stresses that the life of the church is its mission. The adult packet contains the main book of study, "Signals for the Sixties" with eight chapters, a book of programme plans and a worship booklet with thirteen well prepared devotionals. The reading book, "Hasten the Day," by Jennie L. Beattie, contains ten captivating stories dealing with actual life situations. This is the adult packet, price $3.00.

The Senior Teen-age packet is centred on "The Future Won't Wait." The Primary children will study "Timmy's Team" and the guide was written by Sue Bonsteel, of Bronte.

Mrs. MacMullen also spoke briefly re a few of the volumes in the bookshelf. The booklet, "Let's Take A Trip" and the book, "Outreach," could be used to arrange a most interesting and informative program.

The September meeting will be arranged by Mrs. Don Knight and Mrs. Stanley Williams.

Programme On Music

The programme centred around music, opened with a novely number by Mrs. Harry Brown, Carmel, who played "The Tennessee Waltz" on the piano and the accordion at the same time. She also rendered a hymn on her accordion and another on the piano.

Miss Linda Wellman, Springbrook, was guest soloist, with Miss Doreen Broadworth, accompanist. Miss Wellman sang "God Hath Not Promised" and she also rendered several hymns which included "Unto The Hills."

Mrs. Herbert Smith presided over the devotional and read an article on the theme "Thank God For Music." Miss Barbara Williams read Psalm 100 and a special prayer. Miss Judy Cooney read a message from the Book of Matthew and gathered the offering which was dedicated with a hymn.

Mrs. Kenneth Weaver read the history of two hymn, "All Creatures of Our God and King," written by St. Francis of Assini, 1182-1226, and "This Is My Father's World," written by M. Babcock, 1858-1901. The group sang in unison these selections.

The meeting closed with "The Day Thou Gavest Lord Is Ended," followed by a special benediction.

The lunch committee, Mrs. Gordon Linn and Mrs. Donald Johnson, served light refreshments and all enjoyed a social half hour.

Miss Ruth Sharpe Honoured With Shower

A very enjoyable bridal shower was held Tuesday evening in Mount Pleasant Church Hall in honour of Miss Ruth Sharpe, a bride of the month, with about forty ladies in attendance.

The hostesses were Mrs. Garth Joslin, Mrs. Earl Dunkley and Mrs. John Morgan. The guests included the ladies of the Williams Public School Section No. 4 and a few friends, Mrs. John Brown and Mrs. Robert Moorcroft, Belleville; Mrs. Gerald Clancy and Mrs. Gerald Russett, Wellman's, and Mrs. Harvey Couch and Mrs. Carleton Potts.

The hostesses presented Ruth and her mother, Mrs. Leonard Sharpe, with corsages of pink gladioli on their arrival at the Hall.

Mrs. Garth Joslin was mistress of ceremonies and in her address she spoke briefly re Ruth's forthcoming marriage and then traced Ruth's education from public school days at Williams School, S.S. No. 4, Mount Pleasant, on to Stirling-Rawdon District High School in Stirling, thence to Queen's University, Kingston, and finally a member of a high school teaching staff in Oshawa.

Mrs. Will McAdam led the assembly singing with Mrs. Carleton Potts as pianist. Mrs. Archie Bailey read a humorous article.

Mrs. Will Jeffs contributed a medley of sentimental songs on the piano. Miss Diane McAdam rendered a piano solo. Four interesting contests were staged by Mrs. Bill Morgan, Mrs. Harry McAdam, Mrs. Garth Joslin and Mrs. Mac Sharp. The winners of the one contest were Mrs. Archie Bailey and the guest of honour.

At this juncture Ruth was seated in a special chair and her former public school teacher, Mrs. Harvey Couch, read an appreciative address. On behalf of the group the hostess made the presentation of an electric coffee percolator, electric kitchen clock, cup and saucer, a recipe container with each guest contributing her favourite recipe, a guest book and bride's book. This latter was a special subject of conversation as it had been exceptionally well prepared. The cover was in mauve silk with flowers painted in oil and special lettering on each page.

Ruth graciously thanked her friends for their lovely gifts and she also conveyed thanks to the hostesses for the marvelous party in her honour. She also voiced thanks to everyone in Mount Pleasant community for their catering which they were doing on August 13th and 19th.

The tables were arranged with glassware, pretty candles and flowers and a dainty buffet luncheon was served.

Mrs. Joslin took several flash pictures as a memento of the occasion and the group enjoyed a delightful social half hour and expressed best wishes for future happiness as they departed homewards.

THE BIBLE TODAY

An emergency situation in Indonesia eighteen months ago called for a crash programme of printing the Scriptures. It was decided to import 500,000 copies in 22 languages. A review of this programme in the light of the increasing demand brought the decision to produce 30,000 Bibles in Javanese, 50,000 in Toba Batah as well as 50,000 New Testaments in Indonesian. 50,000 of the Klinkert-Bode version of the Bible will be printed in Bahasa Indonesian.

After long consultation, the Indonesian Government has decided to allow part of the War Damage Reparation Fund to be used for the printing in Japan of 500,000 Bibles in Indonesian.

The negotiations between the Japanese and Indonesian Governments are already in progress and it is expected that soon the Bibles will be available.

These measures will begin to meet the immediate need for Scriptures and provide supplies during the time it will take to develop the plants to print the Scriptures in Indonesia.

Formal Opening Hastings County Museum Wed. Last

(By Mrs. Roy Bush)

On Wednesday, August 9th, a number of residents of Stirling and district attended the official opening of the new Museum for Hastings County in the old Registry Office, 240 Church St., Belleville, on the lawn outside the museum door. The President of the Historical Society, Mr. Gerald E. Boyce, was chairman, and the County Warden, Mr. Harleigh Hamilton, cut the ribbon on the Museum door.

The speakers, Warden H. Hamilton, Mayor A. McLean Haig, of Belleville, Councillor D. Fraser, representing the Mayor of Trenton, praised the results of this new venture, noting many of its values and the need for more interest in our local early history. Special tribute was paid to President Boyce and Treasurer Tom Ransom, who gave leadership and so much of their time and talents in preparing, selecting and placing of the exhibits.

Another feature in the ceremony was the presentation of a Victorian Medal, won in the Riel Rebellion by a former resident, Mr. W. A. Morton. Mayor Haig at this time presented the medal to the Society.

Mr. Boyce in his opening remarks reviewed the work and growth of the new Hastings Historical Society and the problems involved in the attempt to have a museum in Hastings County. He also paid tribute to all those who had helped to make it possible and explained how the City of Belleville, Town of Trenton and County of Hastings had combined their efforts to make it possible.

The Museum at present is divided into two parts — The Couldery Collection of beautiful European antiques, the gift of Mrs. Salaman, and (2) a display of material pertaining to the early history of Hastings. This portrays to children and adults some of the pioneer living as read about in history and reminds them of the struggle and heritage often forgotten in these modern days.

Among the displays are a small schoolroom, a mineral collection, an arrangement of homespun, local crocks and jugs, maps of Hastings County dating back to 1856, and a host of early pictures, newspapers and advertising.

Donors of material include a number of local residents Mr. C. S. Chard, Mrs. Geo. Heasman and Mrs. Roy Bush.

The principal purpose of the Museum is to have a local place to display materials pertaining to the history of Hastings County, which is being lost or destroyed.

For 1961 the Museum will be opened during the following hours: Monday and Friday evenings from 7 to 10 o'clock; Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday, from 2 to 5 p.m., when Curators Mrs. J. Sargent, Mrs. D. Elvidge, Miss Mary Lu Homs and Miss Barbara Weese and their assistants will be in attendance.

For further information consult the following Hastings County Historical Society Executive and Museum Committee for 1961: Mr. Gerald Boyce, President; Mr. Chas. Bishop, Mrs. Roy Bush, Miss Meryl Campbell, Secretary; Mrs. John English, Miss Hazel Farley, representing Trenton Town Council; Mrs. John Haig, Warden Harleigh Hamilton, representing Hastings County Council; Mr. Lloyd Price, Mr. Thomas Ranson, Treasurer; Alderman Leslie F. Reid, representing Belleville City Council, and Mr. Thomas G. Wrightman.

Among those visiting the museum on opening day from the Stirling area were: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Belshaw, Mr. Glenn Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Heasman and Charles, Mrs. Wilfred Sine, Mrs. C. Vance, Mrs. George Williams, Mrs. Walter Wright, Mrs. P. Corby and Mrs. C. Wilson.

RECEIVED WITH SOME THANKS

The sad-faced man's hard-luck story so impressed the kind-hearted merchant that he filled a large sack with groceries and said, "These are on me — hope they help."

Misty-eyed, the fellow started out, then turned back.

"Need something else?" asked the merchant.

Came the sad reply, "How about my trading stamps?"

RICHARDSON — In loving memory of Dad, the late Morley Richardson, who passed away two years ago, August 22nd.

Thinking of him still as the same, I say:
He is not dead — he is just away.

THE TEA SANDWICH

There are so many reasons for having a tea party — to welcome a new neighbour, to entertain for a bride-elect, to show off the newly decorated living-room or to welcome the new club president. And what to serve with the tea is answered so simply — sandwiches, dainty colourful, tasty ones arranged attractively on your best plates.

If you are not already an expert at making tea sandwiches, the Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture, has a few pointers for you.

The Bread for the Sandwiches

Allow 1 to 1½ slices of bread per person, this will provide 2 to 3 small sandwiches each. As tea sandwiches are dainty, the bread slices should not be thicker than ¼ inch. Soft fresh bread should be used for fancy sandwiches. Plain breads such as enriched white and whole wheat go with any kind of filling but there's special flavour and appeal in sandwiches made from fancy breads like date and nut, cheese, fruit, banana etc., especially the open-face ones, which can be spread with creamed cheese.

The Butter For The Bread

Allow approximately ¾ of a teaspoon of butter for every slice of bread. For example, if you are buttering 32 slices of bread you will need 24 teaspoons of butter which is the equivalent of ¼ pound. The butter should be allowed to soften at room temperature, then creamed until light and fluffy. As the bread for tea sandwiches is thinly sliced, the butter should be spread in a thin layer over it and a pliable knife or spatula does the job better than a stiff knife. Plain butter, like plain bread, goes with any filling but there's novelty of flavour in seasoned butters for fancy sandwiches. Try adding to creamed butter, subtle touches of a spice such as nutmeg, cinnamon, poppy seed or crushed caraway; or an herb such as thyme, basil, tarragon, minced parsley or onion.

The Spread Over The Butter

Tea sandwiches are dainty and therefore the texture of the filling must be fine and the amount of filling on each sandwich should be on the light side. Creamed cheeses, vegetable or relish fillings, and sweet fillings make good spreads for afternoon tea sandwiches. All ingredients such as celery, pimento, nuts and pickles, should be chopped very finely. Taste as you go. If the bread and butter are plain, the filling can stand considerable flavour added to it. If the bread or butter is already fancy, season the filling with a very light touch.

Four Simple Shapes For The Plate

Cut Outs

(1) Make ordinary sandwiches and cut into small triangles, diamonds, squares and fingers.

(2) Cut thin bread slices with small shaped cutters to make circles, flowers, stars, hearts, crescents etc. Spread with butter, then spread one half with filling and cover with matching slice.

(3) Cut slices of bread with different shapes. Spread with butter and filling. Decorate with a different garnish on each kind of sandwich. With a few of these very attractively decorated open-face sandwiches, there is hardly need for garnish on the sandwich plate.

Pinwheels

Cut thin slices of unsliced bread, lengthwise. Spread with butter and filling. Remove crusts. At one end (for center of pinwheel) place a row of stuffed olives or pitted cherries, gherkins, dill pickle (plain or hollowed out and filled with cream cheese), dates asparagus, stuffed celery, banana or cooked sausage, etc. Roll up firmly like a jello roll, sealing edge with butter or filling. Wrap in waxed paper and chill for several hours. To serve, cut each roll into 6 to 8 pinwheels. For variety make some pinwheels without center decoration.

Rollups

Follow directions for pinwheels but use ordinary sliced bread and only very small center decoration (e.g. asparagus tip or piece of watercress). To serve, cut diagonally in half, or cut into bite-size pieces. Rollups may be toasted in oven or broiler and served on cocktail picks

Ribbons

Make 4-layer sandwiches, alternating ½ inch buttered slices of white and brown bread and using three contrasting, smooth-textured, moist fillings such as minced ham, minced egg and olive and pimento cream cheese. Press firmly together. With a sharp knife, cut crusts from sides of each stack. Wrap in waxed paper and chill for several hours. To serve, cut into ½ inch slices and cut each slice into halves or thirds — oblongs or triangles.

For more information on sandwiches write to Inforamtion Division, Canada Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, for a free copy of the booklet "The Art of Making Sandwiches."

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

MAGNIFICENT OBSESSION

Several years ago a book was published whose theme was the notion that if you do good in secret, the returns will be substantial.

I believe it. If I ever doubted it, I have good reason now for renewed faith.

This morning I came to work very early because I planned to make up for yesterday's dull performance. When I reached the building, I saw that a young man was standing by the small sign which bears my name. He was giving it a vigorous polish.

I knew that he was not a workman for the building, because he was dressed more like a clerk. There is a larger sign above mine, very much in need of polishing, but he did not polish it. He was just tucking his rags away when I greeted him.

"Nice job," I said, grinning, "but I can't quite understand . . .?"

"You don't remember me?"

"You do look familiar," I said, "but I can't put a name on you . . ."

He told me that I had met him only once about a year ago. He was from a small town , and he knew the editor of one of the papers that carry this column. The editor had suggested to him that he drop in to see me because I might help him get located.

I had written a letter for the young lad, outlining his age, qualifications and ambitions, and we ran it off on our mimeograph machine and sent it out to firms where we thought there might be an opening. I hadn't heard from him since. In fact, when weeks went by without a word, I had thought that he wasn't too smart a young fellow or he would have kept me posted on the results of the mailing.

The letter, he told me, brought some interested replies, and one of them resulted in a job not far from my office.

"I should have called to thank you," he said, "but you are a busy man and I guess I was a bit shy. So when I go by this way, I sometimes polish your sign — it sure gets dusty! Makes you look old-fashioned, a dusty sign."

Maybe I am old-fashioned and the sign ought to be dusty, but I'm feeling pretty good today, a shine in my eyes and a lot of faith in humanity. What I did for that boy was peanuts, and partly prompted by a desire to please an editor who used my stuff, at that. But, no matter how poor my motive, the results were good. One young man thinks enough of me to stop and clean my sign. I don't deserve it, but I sure like it!

New Issue of Pocket Encyclopedia

Are there more girls or boys born in Canada in a year? How many general elections have there been in Canada, and which party has won the most? How many cities are there with more than 25,000 population? Since the war has West or East more often won football's Grey Cup? How many horses are left on Canadian farms?

The answers to all of these questions and to thousands of others that many Canadians might wonder about from time to time are contained in the 17th annual edition of Quick Canadian Facts, a 144-page, 50-cent "Canadian pocket encyclopedia" that has just come out in the book stores and on the larger newsstands. To the questions above, here are the book's answers:

Each year in Canada there are between 1,047 and 1,067 male births to every 1,000 female births, a higher rate of male births that is constant and that appears to be nature's way of compensating for a higher infant morality among boys;

Since Confederation there have been 24 general elections, with the wins evenly divided between the Conservatives and Liberal parties;

There are just over half a million horses left in Canada, less than 20 per cent of the total of 20 years ago;

There are 50 cities with populations of more than 25,000 and 57.7 per cent of the total urban population lives in these 50 cities;

Over the past 15 years the East has won the Grey Cup nine times; Toronto has been a four-time winner, Edmonton a three-times winner.

A few more excerpts to illustrate the diversity of the new annual's information:

About occupations: "The primary industries other than agriculture — fishing, forestry, mining and trapping — employ about 300,000 persons; governments, excluding Crown corporations and the armed services, about 300,000; transportation and communication, about 400,000; construction about 500,000; wholesale and retail trade, about 700,000; manufacturing about 1,350,000."

About clothing: "Climate and cultural conditions make Canadians among the world's largest users of textiles, at a per capita rate about three times the world average. To supply these fabrics, products and garments takes about 180,000 workers, the biggest manufacturing labour force in the country."

About resources: "Sales of natural gas in Canada totalled 324 billion cubic feet in 1960 for a value of $200,000,000, an increase of 14.6 per cent from 1959 and of more than 56 per cent from 1958.'"

About public finance: "Government transfer payments to persons — money collected by taxation and then paid out for welfare, social security, etc. — amounted in 1960 to $3,116 million, compared with $2,758 million in 1959; in 1955 such payments totalled $1,737 million, and in 1950, $1,030 million."

The new edition of Quick Canadian Facts (published by Quick Canadian Facts Ltd., 217 Bay St., Toronto) includes a chronological history from Canada's earliest days up to early 1961, concise articles on the provinces, government, the major industries, text and tables on geography and climate; in addition there are up-to-date statistical reviews of the population, occupations, incomes, taxation, trade, transportation and business.

The Good Driver

Only one traffic accident in twelve is attributed to mechanical failure, says the Ontario Safety League. But that word "only", which often suggests something of little consequence, takes on deep significance when it is realized that in that in Ontario alone about 100 people lose their lives every year because of mechanical deficiencies of automobiles.

Mr. Roy Haeusler, automotive safety engineer of Chrysler Corporation believes that not enough people take advantage of the mechanical safeguards that are available to keep them from injury. The elementary, and often neglected, step is to have your car inspected regularly, he says, to make sure that all the things you need for efficient operation are in the car, and in good working order. "You specially need the 'S' things in perfect order. Things to help you Start and Steer, and Stop, and See, and Signal."

In addition to the operating essentials, he points out that there are many optional pieces of equipment that can help to protect a driver, and his passengers. Right at the top of the list is the seat belt. A study based on more than 6,000 actual highway accident cases showed that car occupants wearing seat belts escaped some 30 per cent of the serious, critical and fatal injuries suffered by those not wearing belts.

"The chance that my house will be burned down tomorrow is minute," says Mr. Haeusler. "But I would not be happy to spend even one day without fire insurance. Similarly, the statistical chance of my being involved in a serious traffic accident tomorrow is remote . . . but just in case it does happen I am carrying the insurance of having, and using, a seat belt in my car. I could not afford to lose my house in a fire. Even less can I afford to lose my life, or health, in an accident. And it is worth remembering that for every death on the roads, there are three or four persons who suffer physical and mental injuries resulting in permanent impairment that may be worse than death."

To take simple, inexpensive precautions against the tragedies that stain our roads is a matter of common sense. CHECK YOUR CAR — CHECK ACCIDENTS, asks the Ontario Safety League, on behalf of all who use our streets and highways.

RELEASING PHOSPHORUS BY LIMING

Liming helps release phosphorus in acid soils and promotes decomposition of organic matter — both useful to plant growth.

Doctors R. L. Halstead and K. C. Ivarson of the Soil Research Institute of the Canada Department of Agriculture at Ottawa, described laboratory tests with seven acid soils containing as much as 1,500 pounds of phosphorus per acre in organic form. Liming released 10 to 34 pounds of phosphorus per acre, and increased the number of soil micro-organisms that decompose organic matter.

It is reckoned that 50 percent of the phosphorus in many surface soils in Eastern Canada exists as a part of the soil organic matter.

Lime also releases in organic phosphorus application.

Weed of the Week

COUCH GRASS ONCE USED FOR MAKING BREAD

Couch grass, sometimes called quack, quick, dog or witch grass, although a problem weed in Ontario, was used for bread making in 18th century England. The British botanist Withering wrote: "The roots, dried and ground to meal, have been used to make bread in years of scarcity." Other authors refer to medicinal values of couch grass. One states that: "Couch openeth obstructions of the liver and gall, and easeth the gripping pains of the stomach." The moral of this story might be, "If you can't beat it, eat it."

Seriously speaking, couch grass is hard to beat. A hardy perennial, with wide-spreading, jointed roots, it forms large, matted beds in the soil. New plants spring up from each root joint and even a small, broken root section may re-infest a garden or field.

According to the Field Crops Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture, couch grass can be controlled by frequently plowing and thorough cultivation with a spring-tooth harrow or cultivator, in hot, dry weather. It is not wise to use a disc as this implement cuts the underground roots into short lengths, each of which may produce a new plant. Chemical control has taken great strides in recent years. Amino triazole or dalapon, applied in the early spring when the couch is about 6 inches high, at a rate of 10 to 15 pounds in 30 gallons of water per acre, and followed two weeks later by plowing, gives remarkable control. Another chemical called amitrol T, used in the same way, at 2 gallons per acre, is also effective. Warning: crops should not be planted until 4 to 5 weeks after application of these chemicals. Depending on the situation, chemicals may be too costly for over-all field application, but are ideal for eradicating small patches before they have a chance to spread. For further information, follow the manufacturer's directions and refer to Ontario Department of Agriculture Publication No. 75, "1961 Guide to Chemical Weed Control," available from the County Agricultural Representative.

"FARM PUBLICATION IN ONTARIO" NEW PUBLICATION AVAILABLE

In 1936, the Ontario farmer produced enough food for 11 people. In 1960, he produced enough food for 25 people.

In the same period, the gross value of agricultural production in Ontario rose from $351,000,000 to $1,173,000,000.

The story of Ontario's billion-dollar agricultural industry — its livestock, its field crops, its fruit and vegetable industry, its mechanization, its features as a way of life — are set out, briefly in "Farm Life in Ontario," a new 48-page publication just produced by the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

The publication has been written for persons who have expressed a wish to take up farming in Ontario, but have little or no understanding of it; for urban dwellers, many of whom were born and raised on farms but now live and work in towns and cities and have lost touch with the changes in agriculture since they left it; and for others who might be interested in a brief view of an industry on which all citizens are dependent.

Single copies of "Farm Life in Ontario" are available free of charge to adult residents of Ontario from the Information Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

Timely Tips

Hot August weather usually results in stagnant streams and ponds. You should fence off these areas from your livestock, says Hal Wright, farm safety specialist with the Ontario Department of Agriculture. Cases of mastitis, leptospirosis, and algae poisoning have been traced to stagnant ponds and streams.

Now's the time to start checking your potatoes for late blight, says C. B. Kelly, O.A.C. plant disease specialist. Cool, wet weather with early-morning dew and rain makes ideal growing conditions for the fungus. Keep a close watch on the vines for any signs of late blight. Use one of the recommended fungicides every 5 to 7 days.

Watch out for heat stroke in cattle during the hot weeks left. "It may result from prolonged heat waves, fatigue, lack of water and salt, or crowding and excitement," says Dr. Howard Neely, extension veterinarian at O.V.C. Look for animals that appear dull and reluctant to move. They breathe rapidly and may soon die from lack of air. Take the animal out of the sun and splash or spray cold water on its body, especially around the head and neck. Let the animal drink when it's able to do so.

Cooking Comments

Cutting dates, other sticky fruits, and marshmallows is much easier when you wet the scissors first, say food specialists at Macdonald Institute, Guelph. This keeps the fruit from sticking and saves time.

* * *

When a custard sauce or custard begins to curdle, place the saucepan in cold water. This stops the cooking immediately. Then beat the custard with a rotary beater until it is smooth. Next time remember to cook the custard slowly over hot water, just until it coats a metal spoon.

* * *

As soon as you've finished using baking dishes, fill them with warm water and about half a teaspoon of water softener. They'll be easier to clean, says the specialists in household equipment at Macdonald Institute, Guelph. There are a few exceptions to this rule — use cold water for cereal, flour, eggs and milk dishes.

It's safe to store leftover canned fruit, vegetables and meat in the original can. Clean the can, and then refrigerate the leftovers as soon as possible. Try to use them up quickly — next day is best.

Grub Study Ends

The Canada Department of Agriculture's field laboratory at Marmora, Ont., has been closed by the Department.

The laboratory was used for many years for study of the biology and control of white grubs.

G. H. Hammond, officer in charge when the laboratory shut down, had been with the laboratory since 1939. He will continue his work from Ottawa.

Mr. Hammond plans to conduct extensive surveys on white grub distribution in other parts of Canada. He also plans to complete a manuscript on his observations in this field over the years.

Incomes Increase

Incomes in Japan are showing a steady increase.

A recent survey conducted by the Japan Bureau of Statistics showed that average family income increased by 11.8 percent to $116.00 per month. The survey was based on interviews of 2,600 "working class" families picked at random from throughout the country.

During the same year, however, consumer prices increased by four percent, so that the true increase in income was closer to seven and a half percent.

The increase in income was the greatest of any year since 1953.

Despite generally higher food costs and a tendency towards the purchase of more higher-cost foods, families spent a small percentage of their "consumption" outlays on food. The Engel's co-efficient (ratio of food purchases to total consumption spending) was 38.4 percent compared to 39.6 percent in the previous year.

Expenditures for miscellaneous items such as amusement and "cultural matters" increased by more than 10 percent, indicating a generally higher standard of living. Savings also increased by about nearly 10 percent and families in the lower wage groups increased their spending for such items as furniture and household appliances by a whopping 23.7 percent.

TIPS ON FLY CONTROL

Flies mean less milk in the pail, less beef on the hoof, and they spread disease.

1. Houseflies: They're not blood suckers and do not cause direct losses in meat and milk production but they are disease carriers. Purina Fly Bait is your answer. Scatter it around where flies bunch up—feed rooms, barns, window sills, out in the barnlot. Just sprinkle Purina Dry Fly Bait and watch 'em die.

2. Stable Flies: Are blood suckers; have piercing mouthparts. About same size as a housefly. Stable flies bite animals around the legs and lower extremities. Spend a part of their time in barns. Use Fly Bait and Spray. Dairy Spray and Dairy Spray Concentrate.

3. Horn Flies: Are about ½ the size of ordinary houseflies and will be found in patches on animals in pasture. When the number of Horn Flies average 25 or more per animal—it's time to spray! Dairy Cattle Dust and Dairy Spray.

4. Horseflies: No effective economical spray is known. Use Purina Fly Bait.

5. For dairy cattle: use Purina Dairy Spray every day or two. Use Purina Dairy Cattle Dust every 3 weeks.

Stirling Juvenile "C" Softballers Eliminate Warkworth In 3rd Game

Stirling Juveniles advanced further along the softball play-off trail last night when they defeated Warkworth 14-11 in the third and deciding game in the district series. The game was played under the lights at Warkworth and was witnessed by a large crowd of fans.

In the absence of G. Stewart, Larry McMaster was on the mound for Stirling and while he experienced difficulty with his control at times he came through in the clutch. The locals backed him up by some sparkling fielding plays, with Roger Smith at shortstop pulling off a feature catch of a screaming liner. Stirling also were in a hitting mood and at times pounded the offerings of the Warkworth flinger.

Larry McMaster, besides pitching, led the local hitters with five hits out of six, while T. Thompson had a triple and "Moose" Bell a homer, the longest hit ball of the game.

WARKWORTH WON SECOND GAME

In the second game of the series played at Warkworth last Saturday night the home team defeated Stirling by a 7 to 1 score.

Stirling Summer Vacation School At St. Andrew's Proves A Success

An enjoyable summer vacation church school was held during the past two weeks from Monday to Friday, August 7th to 18th, at St. Andrew's, Stirling, and St. Andrew's, West Huntingdon. Kenneth J. Rooney, Presbyterian minister, directed the schools, assisted by Miss Christine Shaw, Kingston Presbytery Deaconess.

Students were divided into three age groups, kindergarten (pre-school), primary (6-8), and junior (9 up).

Twenty five attended the school held at Stirling each afternoon where Miss Janet Johnston and Miss Gail Morrow taught the kindergarten group and played the piano.

Thirty five attended the morning sessions at West Huntingdon, where Miss Bernice McCurdy taught the kindergarten group and played the piano.

Westminster materials approved by the Canadian Council of Churches were used. This year's theme was the Life of Christ which stressed some important events in Our Lord's life.

Children attended from the United, Anglican, Presbyterian, Pentecostal and Christian Reformed Churches.

Our thanks are due to the parents and friends from the above churches who co-operated to make the school enjoyable and provided refreshments in mid-morning and mid-afternoon. At Stirling where the school was a new venture the following ladies donated cookies and freshie: Mrs. Kenneth Ray, Mrs. James Johnston, Mrs. Roy Eggleton and Mrs. Ernest Cain.

The programme included balanced activities in which all the children took part. Worship and Bible study periods alternated with periods of craft work and games. Many choruses and spiritual songs were learned and sung with enthusiasm by the boys and girls. Visitors who addressed the school during sessions were the Rev. F. Downing, Rector of St. John's Anglican Church, and Mr. Eugene Burrell, Church School Superintendent of St. Andrew's, Stirling. Rev. P. J. Hommersen and Rev. F. C. Crook were unable to attend.

Special thanks go to Mrs. David Fargey and Mrs. Jas. Johnston at whose home the Deaconess was entertained during the school.

Guest Night

Guest Night in Stirling on August 17th was fairly well attended by interested parents and friends. Kory Dykstra and Richard Wright tied for the attendance contest and each received a New English Bible. Miss Shaw was presented with a small gift.

Visitors Night at West Huntingdon on August 18th was well attended. Miss Shaw and Miss McCurdy were presented with gifts by Mrs. Harry Benson in appreciation of their efforts.

Both programmes were made up of songs and skits by the students. Each student received a Vacation Bible School pencil, a "Books of the Bible" bookmark and an Attendance Certificate.

The students apparently enjoyed the school, as one remarked, "I never knew going to church was so much fun!"

THE BIBLE TODAY

The Philippine Bible House reports good success with two ventures in Bible distribution. A Bible van, complete with audio-visual equipment, was loaned to the Christian and Missionary Alliance Churches in Catabato Province. A director appointed by the mission reports that visitation to the churches and canvassing by voluntary workers produced sales of 8,000 Gospel portions and 1,000 each of Bibles and New Testaments.

Rev. A. B. Taglucop, Executive Secretary of the Philippine Bible House writes, "Two people who directed the work have continued their efforts after the van left for another area. A book store was established. Moslems bought English Bibles and Gospels in their own dialect. The stocks of portions were exhausted in a short time."

A similar campaign is now being carried out in another area under the direction of the Free Methodist Church.

A display of Bibles in many languages and the showing of films was undertaken by the Bible House at the time of an international fair held in Manilla. Included in the display were Bibles and Portions in 25 different dialects used in Philippines alone.

Hon. M. D. Dymond, M.D., Enters Conservative Leadership Race

The Honourable M. B. Dymond, M.D., Minister of Health for Ontario, has announced that he will enter the Conservative leadership race for a successor to Premier Frost.

Dr. Matthew Dymond, although Scottish born, has been a Canadian for the past 30 plus years. A firm believer in self help and individual initiative, he welcomed the opportunity in Canada for anyone willing to work. As a result, he was able to complete his matriculation and graduated from Queens University Medical School in 1941.

After serving Canada in the Medical Corps in World War II, he began medical practice in Port Perry, where he still lives.

An interest in politics, begun while at University, developed to the point where Dr. Dymond was elected to his town council — served there for five years — then on the Board of Education for three years, before being elected in 1955 to the Provincial Legislature. Two years later, he was named Minister of Reform Institutions — then within eighteen months, to the new Ministry of Transport and later to the Health Ministry, which portfolio he still holds. This Ministry has been marked by some of the most forward looking programmes in Mental Health ever undertaken by any jurisdiction in Canada.

Robt. W. Macaulay, Ontario Minister of Energy Resources and John Robarts, Minister of Education, have also annonuced their candidature.

Mount Pleasant

The farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Seeney was burned on Saturday morning.

The school was conducted by the pastor, Rev. K. J. Rooney. Teachers were: Juniors, 9 and up, Rev. Rooney; Primary, 6 to 8, Miss Christine Shaw, Deaconess for the Presbytery of Kingston; Kindergarten (preschool), Miss Bernice McCurdy. Music for the singing was also provided by Miss McCurdy.

Lunches for each mid-morning break were provided by the ladies of West Huntingdon United and Presbyterian Churches.

The study for this year was "The Life of Jesus Christ."

Guest Night

Marking the close of the school a Guest Night was held and was well attended by parents and friends.

The theme song, "We Would See Jesus," opened the programme. The devotions were conducted by Miss C. Shaw. A number of choruses learned by the children were sung. Each class contributed the following numbers:

Kindergarten — Chorus, "Building Up The Temple."

Primary — Enactment of the Parable of the Talents.

Junior — Pantomine, "The Good Samaritan."

The presentation was made of Bible Book marks donated by Mrs. John Wallace. Vacation Bible School pencils bearing the Scripture verse, "Teach Me Thy Way O Lord," Psalm 27: 11, and attendance certificates were also presented

Mrs. Harry Benson expressed gratitude and appreciation to Miss Shaw and Miss McCurdy and presented them with a gift.

Following the closing hymn, "Jesus Bids Us Shine" and the benediction, the parents visited the classrooms to view work done and materials used.

"The new baby has its father's nose and its mother's eyes."

"Yes and if Grandpop doesn't stop leaning over the crib, it's going to have his teeth."

4-H Inter-Cub Day At The Belleville Fair

On Friday, August 18th, over forty 4-H members actively participated in the competitions held in the Junior Farmer Building on the Belleville Fair Grounds. Mr. Gibson Patterson, Assistant Agricultural Representative in Hastings directed the competitions. The judges for the day were: Sidney MacDonald, Agricultural Representative in Hastings and Mr. John Cockburn, Assistant Agricultural Representative in Northumberland County.

Rope Halter Making Competition

Contestants were required to make a rope halter according to specifications for an adjustable rope halter as appears in the Ontario Department of Agriculture Bulletin, No. 327, "Knots and Splices." The halters were scored out of 50 points for workmanship and 50 points for time. The Champion Rope Halter Maker was Roy Mumby, of Moira, and the Reserve Champion was Bruce Swan, of Corbyville. The halters became the property of the contestants.

Livestock Showmanship Preparation Competition

Eleven teams competed for the prize money by preparing an unprepared calf for the show ring. The contestants were given 45 minutes to clip, brush, shine and clean hoofs and horns; in the case of beef calves water was used for curling. No washing was allowed.

Two teams placed in the "A" group and are as follows: Lyle Vanclief and Lloyd Spencer, Prince Edward County Calf Club; Ronald Heath and Joe Hagerman, Stirling Calf Club.

Demonstrations

The rules and regulations governing the Demonstration Competition stated that teams of two or three 4-H members would demonstrate a topic concerning Agriculture in 6 to 8 minutes using the loud speaking system.

The team of Ronald Heath and Joe Hagerman were first with their demonstration about "Water Safety on and off the Farm." In second place was the team of Lyle Vanclief and Lloyd Spencer with a demonstration on "Producing High Quality Milk." The team of Elizabeth and Isabella Sager, of Madoc, placed third in the competition with their demonstration called "Potatoes — from Seed to the Table."

Following the competition all participants were guests of the Belleville Agricultural Society for dinner and the grandstand performance.

PEACHES

There are many varieties of peaches but the number one peach on the peach parade is the juicy- yellow-fleshed, freestone type grown principally in the orchards of British Columbia and the Niagara Peninsula. Freestone peaches have always been popular because of their ease of handling, for freestone means that the flesh pulls away readily from the stone.

Peaches are sold generally by the basket containing from 2 to 8 quarts, by the quart box and by the pound. Whether you are planning to preserve the fruit in some way, or use it for desserts and snacks, will determine the amount to buy. To buy more than can be used in a short time is not practical, for peaches are quite perishable.

Peaches are graded for quality when packed and the container is stamped accordingly. The grades are Canada No. 1, and Canada No. 2. Select top quality peaches, especially for canning and freezing, as they are less wasteful. These will be free from bruises and blemishes and have a somewhat creamy complexion with overlying blush. Peaches with a slight greenish tinge should be kept at room temperature until they ripen rather than being stored in the refrigerator.

Here are some peach treats for now and later. These recipes were tested at the Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

GLAZED PEACH TARTS

6 large baked tart shells
3 medium large peaches
½ cup water
½ to 2-3 cup sugar
Few grains salt
1 cup thinly sliced peaches
4 teaspoons cornstarch
2 tablespoons cold water

Blanch and peel peaches, cut in half and remove pits. Heat water, sugar and salt, drop in peach halves, cover and simmer for 1 to 2 minutes depending on firmness of flesh. Lift peaches from syrup and drain, cut side down, on cake rack. Reserve syrup.

To Make Peach Glaze — Add sliced peaches to reserved syrup. Cover and boil gently until slices are very tender, about 5 minutes. Press this syrup-peach mixture through a sieve. Measure and if necessary add water to make 1¼ cups. In a saucepan mix cornstarch and cold water; add syrup mixture; cook until clear and thickened, 3 to 4 minutes. Cool slightly.

To fill tarts — Spoon 1 tablespoon of peach glaze into each tart shell; top with a peach half, cut side down. Cover with 1 to 2 tablespoons of peach glaze. Chill thoroughly. Six servings.

PERSIAN PEACHES

4 cups sliced peaches
1-3 cup orange juice
3 tablespoons liquid honey
1 to 2 tablespoons thinly sliced candied giner
Few grains salt

Combine all ingredients in a bowl and mix gently but thoroughly. Cover and chill for about 1 hour. Spoon into sherbet glasses and serve. Six servings.

PICKLED PEACHES

8 cups sugar
4 cups vinegar, cider or blended
1 cup water
1 ounce stick cinnamon
½ ounce whole cloves
4 quarts small peaches (8 lbs.)

Boil sugar, vinegar, water and stick cinnamon, uncovered, for 10 minutes. Peel peaches. Stick 2 whole cloves in each peach. Add peaches to syrup and cook clowly until tender, about 5 to 8 minutes. Let stand in syrup 10 to 12 hours. Then remove peaches and strain syrup to remove cinnamon. Bring syrup to boil and boil rapidly, uncovered, for 5 minutes. Pack peaches in hot seterilized sealers, cover completely with hot syrup and seal. Store in a cool, dry place for several weeks before using. Makes about 8 pint sealers.

Note — If peaches are very juicy, omit the water.

PEACH CHUTNEY

6 cups peeled, chopped peaches
4 cups peeled, chopped apples
2 cups raisins
4 cups brown sugar
2 teaspoons cinnamon
1 teaspoon cloves
1 teaspoon allspice
2 teaspoons salt
1-8 teaspoon black pepper
1½ cups cider or malt vinegar

Combine all ingredients and cook slowly, stirring frequently until thick, about 1 hour. Pour into hot sterilized jars and seal. Makes about 6 cups.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

TIRED OLD JOE

A socialist, writing in the Forum section of the CCF paper, The Commonwealth, says, "We have had little success in selling the CCF to the ordinary Joe who is interested only slightly in politics, usually just a few jumps ahead of monthly wage cheques, distrustful of all politicians, cynical and self centered, set on keeping up with the Jones' so as to keep his self respect and aplomb. Too often forced to fight traffic to and from his job, he is too tired physically and mentally to do more than absorb a bit of relaxation from his newspaper and radio. As these agencies of communication are mostly owned, controlled and directed by his economic masters, the ordinary Joe, tired and nervous, is gently brainwashed."

The CCF is not having success with Joe because, as illustrated above, they don't know him. He fights traffic, sure enough, but quite often in his own car, and if he were offered a quiet, secure and peaceful job on a collective farm, he'd say to heck with it. He likes the city and though he curses the traffic, he would be lonesome without it.

Another thing about Joe — he is not "ordinary" at all. He doesn't have economic "masters." He is a citizen of Canada, with more freedom than the citizens of any other country. Socialist politicians have been offering him peacefulness, tranquility, security, cradle-to grave health care, five-year plans, ten-year plans, love, humanity, and every fine word they could pilfer from the dictionary. But Joe is no fool. He thinks these socialists are phony. He just doesn't believe their promises. He has never seen them work out in practice anywhere in the whole wide world, although Socialism has been tried again and again.

Joe understands that there may not be traffic problems in socialist countries — they don't have many cars. It would be very peaceful going to your job with an ox team; but Joe likes his car or a bus.

No, Mr. Socialist, you've got Joe wrong. He isn't so tired and nervous, and he isn't stupid or disinterested. If he were, he would have reached for those luscious-looking things you dangle in front of him year after year. He knows that while life could be a lot better, it could also be a whole lot worse — as the socialists have proved whenever they've been able to gain power!

VISITS INSIDE ONTARIO

(Reprinted from the Telegram)

The women of Ontario are on the move in the first of a series of pilgrimages in which they will drop in for tea and conversation in other communities.

This first adventure, in October, will see busloads of members of the Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario on a four-day tour that will commence in Toronto and pass through Parry Sound, Sudbury, Manitoulin Island, North Bay, and back to Toronto via the Muskoka area.

In the course of their journey, the women, from southern Ontario, as they travel through some of the most beautiful regions of the Province, will meet fellow members in other centres, form friendships and discuss their aims and ideas, their projects and problems.

As more of these tours take place in the future, the 38,000 members of the Federated Women's Institutes scattered throughout Ontario will obtain personal knowledge of their Province and of matters concerning each other.

Out of such expeditions and the interchange of views, the good results will be interest and understanding stretching across communities, crystallizing opinion and consolidating effort in the several spheres of activity in which members of the institutes are engaged. Locally and provincially, the cumulative effect cannot fail to be constructive.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

Weed of the Week

MILKWEED

Florists and home decorators use dry stalks and warty pods of milkweed in forming striking floral arrangements. In such a setting milkweed may be said to be useful. Not enough people use these arrangements to take care of the annual crop produced in Ontario. So each year the surplus becomes larger and larger and many farmers now consider this weed a bad one.

This group, says Chas. Kingsbury of the Field Crops Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture, realizes that any plant that lives several years, and spreads both underground by rootstalks and through the air by thousands of parachuting seeds, is a menace to crop production. Herbicides such as 2,4-D or brushkill applied early in the season help in control. Later on, a waxy coat forms on top of the leaves and the spray must be directed upwards from near the ground to hit the unprotected surface of the leaf. To learn about these and other weed controls, read the 1961 Guide to Chemical Weed Control, available from the County Agricultural Representative.

Milkweed is most commonly found in old pastures and along roadsides. It does invade cultivated crop land and can be a serious hindrance in harvesting these crops. Like so many other weeds, it helps to hit them when they are few and small. Keep them from growing and keep them from seeding; you can always get enough from a neighbour for your desired floral arrangement.

Furrow and Fallow By Fairbairn

Wheat prices in western Ontario have fallen drastically — last week they were around 1.10 to 1.15 a bushel which is 30 or more cents lower than when the harvest began. High moisture content dropped prices as soon as wheat began coming in from the farms but even more serious after the earliest arrivals has been very bad sprouting. We talked to one Co-Op manager who normally handles 70 to 80,000 bushels who got only about 8,000 bushels he can sell for milling — that was at the beginning of the harvest. Since then most of the wheat has sprouted and after drying it is being sold for feed as quickly as possible. Despite rental storage space he hasn't enough — and they built new feed elevators a year ago.

On the other hand, yields are very good and despite lower prices many farmers will realize almost as much per acre as they did a year ago. 50 to 60 bushels per acre are not uncommon with some as high as 80 and a couple of seed dealers from Michigan we met at Alex Stewart's at Ailsa Craig said conditions were similar there. This sprouting has caused grave doubts about the amount of registered and certified seed grain that will be available in the next month, though. One dealer from the U.S. has sold 50,000 bushels of seed wheat and he is hoping to get it from Ontario. Unless regulations governing sprouted grain are relaxed (provided germination is normal) there is some question about whether he will find enough to say nothing of requirements right here at home being filled.

There is a bright spot in all this for farmers in western Ontario — and perhaps in other parts of the province who want to buy livestock or poultry feed. We would guess that some of this sprouted wheat could be had for around $40 a ton (maybe less direct from farmers) and we talked to one farmer who operates a combined beef and poultry operation who was going to buy 1,000 bushels immediately although he was in the process of taking off 60 acres of mixed grain. Another beef farmer told us he had just completed a deal for screenings at $37.50 per ton. So, as always, one fellow's tough luck is going to help somebody else.

Have turkey growers been watching kill figures in western Canada? The amount of turkey going to market doesn't bear out the forecast and if this continues it could mean that the figures on hatching are not as accurate a forecast on marketing as we usually think. It might also mean that producers who want to gamble might consider storing turkeys rather than selling now at present very low prices.

Timely Tips

You can't afford to graze your alfalfa this September if you want a good stand next year, says Dr. W. E. Tossell of the OAC Field Husbandry Department. Plan to graze fields that will be plowed this fall. Studies at OAC show that an alfalfa stand grazed during September yielded one ton per acre less the next year. Also, 40% of the plants didn't survive the winter. Start to graze again in October, suggests Tossell. One caution: you should leave a stubble of 4 to 6 inches to protect the plants over winter.

Here's a recipe for whitewash that won't flake. Mix up one bag of hydrated lime and 7 gallons of water several days before you're ready to work, suggests Hal Wright, Ontario Department of Agriculture extension engineer. Next, dissolve 6 pounds of salt in 2 gallons of boiling water. Mix the two solutions together when they're both cold. Then stir 3 pounds of Portland cement into the final mixture. Clean the surface with a stiff brush and water. Have it damp when you brush or spray on the whitewash.

Be careful when around the many moving parts of a combine, warns Hal Wright, safety specialist, Ontario Department of Agriculture. Stop the machine before greasing, adjusting, or inspecting. Keep belt and chain guards in place at all times. And don't forget the shield over the P.T.O. shaft — it could be the most costly mistake you'll make.

Cut down on lodging and increase the winter hardiness of your winter wheat by using the correct type and rate of fertilizer, advises Prof. Tom Lane, OAC soil researcher. If your soil hasn't been tested this year follow these recommendations. On unmanured land apply a minimum of 150 pounds per acre of a 5-20-20 analysis on sandy soil, or 5-20-10 on a clay soil. For wheat going into manured land or following clover, use at least 250 pounds per acre of 0-20-20 on sandy soils or 0-20-10 on clay soils.

A Matter of Opinion

Utility, or beauty? This is one of the oldest questions in the history of mankind. Every day, someone has to strike a balance between the usefulness of an article and its aesthetic value.

No one could deny that modern subdivisions serve a vital role, but whether they are things of beauty which will provide everlasting joy is open to question. Motor vehicles, too, clutter our towns and cities, yet without them our economy would come virtually to a standstill. There are countless other examples.

The question cannot be evaded, even by organizations dedicated to utility. In this group is Ontario Hydro.

It is possible that many people do not recognize the efforts Hydro has made in balancing the scale. On one side it provides electricity, which involves plant and power lines sprinkled across the landscape. On the other, it does everything possible to make sure these do not interfere with nature.

Levels of certain lakes, for example, have been regulated to conserve fish. At one generating station a ramp was installed to prevent deer drowning should they fall into the canal. Since 1932 about 1,600,000 trees have been planted on Hydro property.

But at this time of year, when the countryside looks its best, Hydro has a recurring problem: to keep its power lines free of interference from trees and high brush and at the same time preserve the natural appearance of the neighbourhood.

To accomplish this, Hydro uses a chemical herbicide which kills small brush.

The chemicals are harmless to wildlife. A day-old chick would have to eat a ton of grass sprayed with the herbicide before it would even get sick. Thousands of people in Ontario use similar herbicides to rid their lawns of weeds.

Hydro has chosen the most economical method of clearing its rights-of way. Its foresters estimate it would cost four times as much to cut, and cutting is an annual problem. On average, spraying is only necessary every three years.

Spraying does not destroy the beauty of the countryside for long. Flowers and low-growing plants quickly return. Grass isn't affected. The after-effect presents the pleasing appearance of meadowland.

Clearance, paradoxically, eventually enhances the mantle of nature. The rights-of-way offer a vast tonnage of varied forage for animals, and low-growing foliage supports an insect population which in turn provides food for birds and wildlife. An important side effect is that they provide fire breaks in our forests.

The natural heritage of the people of Ontario is vital. So is electricity. Hydro, with its motto: "The gifts of nature are for the people," is doing its best to even the balance between the two.

Cooking Comments

Do the terms evaporated milk and condensed milk confuse you? These types of canned milk have one thing in common: they both have half the water removed before they are canned. The difference is that condensed milk has sugar added. It is used in many candies and desserts. Evaporated milk when reconstituted with an equal amount of water can be used for whole milk. It is especially good in the summertime at the cottage for baking because it will keep in the unopened can at room temperature. Once the can is opened treat it as you would fresh milk.

Local 171 Farmers' Union

The August meeting of Local 171 of the Ontario Farmers' Union was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Heath. There was a very good attendance present.

Murney Bateman was chairman and opened the meeting with the singing of the Queen. The minutes of the June meeting were read and adopted. The July meeting at George William's cottage was a social evening.

Jeanne Williams was Hastings County delegate to the National Farm Union Convention in Winnipeg in July. She reported that it was a very good convention and all of Ontario's Farm Union resolutions were passed. There was a lot of time spent discussing the drought situation in the west. In many areas the crop is a complete failure. Mrs. Williams reported that the Co-Op movement is very strong in the west. The Manitoba Co-Ops took the delegates on a tour of some of their plants.

Some time was spent discussing local problems. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson.

Delbert Mumby moved a vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Heath for the use of their home. Lunch was served by the ladies and a social period was spent.

Agricultural Judging Competition At Belleville Fair

The General Agricultural Judging Competition was held on Wednesday, August 16th in conjunction with the Belleville Fair. Seventy 4-H and Junior Farmer members took part and were required to judge and give reasons on each of the following classes: Holsteins, Herefords, Sheep, Swine, Potatoes, Oats, Apples and Alfalfa seed. The Agricultural Quiz consisted of 25 true and false questions and the identifying of 25 farm objects or materials.

The competition started at 9.00 a.m. under the direction of Mr. Sidney MacDonald and Gibson Patterson, the Agricultural Representatives for Hastings County. Assisting with the competition were Assistant Agricultural Representatives from the neighbouring Quinte counties.

The winners of the Senior Division of the competition were:

1st, Ronald Heath, Stirling R.R. 1; 2nd, Owen Ketcheson, Moira; 3rd, Larry Bertrand, Marmora R.R. 1; 4th, Harold Werkhoven, Belleville R.R. 7; 5th, Donald Farrell, Moira.

The winners of the Junior Division are as follows:

1st, Duane Kerr, Campbellford R.R. 2; 2nd, Fred Phillips, Belleville, R.R. 2; 3rd, Allan Plumpton, Morganston; 4th, Jane Thomson, Belleville R.R. 6; 5th, Linda Ketcheson, Moira.

Ronald Heath High Boy Contestant

Ronald Heath was winner of the Bank of Montreal tray for receiving the highest score on reasons. Ron also wos a fifteen silver dollar award donated by the Northern Electric Co. to the high boy contestant.

Elizabth Sager, of Madoc, was the high girl of the competition and she received fifteen silver dollars from the Northern Electric Company.

All contestants received a meal ticket to the grandstand performance as compliments of the Belleville Agricultural Society.

4-H and Junior Farmer Tractor Rodeo

Some 40 contestants from the Quinte Counties took part in the 4-H and Junior Farmer Tractor Safe Driving Competition on Thursday, August 17th at the Belleville Fair.

Mr. John Clark, Agricultural Engineering Fieldman, Kemptville Agricultural School, directed the competition with the help of Mr. Owen Gibb, Engineering Specialist in Brighton, and Mr. Alan Teskey, Assistant Agricultural Representative in Lennox and Addington.

Each competitor was required to drive a tractor and wagon through an obstacle course safely and then back the wagon to a ramp. In addition to the driving section the contestants answered a safety quiz and identified a number of parts pertaining to tractors and farm machinery.

Winners of the Junior Division are as follows:

1st, Ralph Paul, Napanee R.R. 4; 2nd, Paul Stewart, Hilton R.R. 1; 3rd, David Foley, Madoc R.R. 1; 4th, Eldon Kerr, Campbellford; 5th, Neil Randall, Cobourg R.R. 5

Winners of the Senior Division are as follows:

The Belleville Agricultural Society provided each contestant with a meal and a pass to the grandstand performance.

The Good Driver

Ontario is a law-abiding place, on the whole. And most of the law breaking takes place under wraps. But on the streets and highways citizens break the law repeatedly, dangerously and openly, and it seems that there is nothing that can be done about it.

Many drivers who obey most of the rules imposed by traffic regulations, and most of the rules imposed by common sense, break one important restriction whenever they get into traffic. They follow too close! They do this day after day, as a matter of course whenever they take the wheel. Of course, they have to give it up for awhile if they spend some time in hospital after a rear-end collision, but they probably go right back on the road and do it again when the fractures have healed.

Nearly one out of every ten traffic smash-ups is the consequence of following too closely, says the Ontario Safety League. It is a terrible price to pay for the privilege, or rather stupidity, of driving along in packs. It is a price that is paid for . . . nothing! Because tailgating does not benefit the driver in any way.

The time saved by a hurrying driver who crowds the traffic ahead is negligible. In fact, in city traffic the driver who keeps well back often has the ride with the fewest hold-ups; he is able to see well ahead and has the opportunity to move into a free-flowing lane when something threatens to block the lane he is in.

It seems that the police have no practical way of enforcing observation of "reasonable and prudent" between-car distances. All they can do is to lay charges after a collision has taken place.

On expressways, rear-end collisions are the No. 1 cause of deaths and injuries. And yet, one sees examples of following dangerously close every few seconds when driving on a super highway.

The Ontario Safety League reminds drivers that the rule of calculating a proper distance from the vehicle ahead is: "One car length for every 10 m.p.h. of speed." This is a minimum. And it applies only to driving in good conditions. When driving conditions are poor, the distance must be increased.

TIPS ON IMPROVING MILK FLAVOUR

There are many outside causes on your farm that could result in off flavours in the milk you market. Here are a few of the most common flavour complaints, with hints on what might be the cause of them:

Weedy—milk has a grassy, weedy or silage taste. Comes from weeds in hay or pasture, or from feeding silage or hay before milking.

Highly acid—tastes sour. From very high bacteria count caused by dirty utensils or poor cooling.

Rancidity—tastes bitter, like soap or rancid butter. Could be from your stripper cows. This condition can be caused by slow cooling with foaming or from cooling, warming, then cooling again.

Salty—check for Mastitis, or it could be caused by stripper cows or by an individual cow.

Malty—Caused by high bacteria, dirty utensils or poor cooling.

Oxidized—Tastes like cardboard. Caused by your milk being exposed to daylight or by exposed copper or iron in equipment —cans need retinning.

These are just a few tips that might help you improve the flavour of your milk. If you'd like to increase your milk production, why not call me, or drop in at my Store with the Checkerboard Sign. I'd like to tell you about Purina's high Efficiency Milk Chow Checkers that were tested against ordinary top quality milking rations and gave an average of 3 lbs. more milk per cow per day.

EXPERT OPINION

An army officer had dictated a letter to the young secretary in which the words "intelligence officer" were used twice. The secretary, not used to army titles, typed "intelligent officer."

The officer who had dicated the letter roared at the little secretary: "Look at this: Whoever heard of an intelligent officer!"

Stirling Midgets scored a 10 to 5 victory over Mount Pleasant at the Henry Street playground Tuesday night before a fair crowd of spectators. The locals had their hitting togs on and came up with some smart fielding plays to make the win possible.

Howard Jeffs was on the mound for the losers, but was not as effective against Stirling as usual. Bolte looked after the pitching chores for the winners and outside of the second inning when he gave up three runs pitched a strong game.

For the winners D. Bird had a homer when his line drive got by Sharpe in right field, while Bosiak had a triple but was out trying to make it a homer. Wrightman hit a triple for the losers but was out trying to stretch it into a homer and Johnson had a double but was out at third on a fine throw from Lawes to Bird to Donohoe.

Stirling Juvenile "C" Softballers Eliminate Norwood in Two Straight

Stewart and Fife Engage in Pitcher's Battle — Three Homers — Good Fielding

Stirling Juveniles advanced further along the softball play-off trail last night when they defeated Norwood 5-2 to take the series in two straight games. The largest crowd of the season, including a large number of Norwood fans, was on hand for the game, which was played under the lights at the Henry St. Playground. Don Lee, Belleville, President of the O.A.S.A., was an interested spectator.

The game itself was a pitcher's battle between Stewart and Fife, two fire-balling hurlers, and the result was in doubt until the final innings.

Norwood went down in order the first three innings, but in the fourth Patterson, the visitors' third baseman, hit a liner down the left field foul line for a home run. They were blanked in the fifth and added their final run in the sixth to take a 2-0 lead on a homer by Fife. They threatened again in the eighth when they loaded the bases but Stewart bore down and held them off the score sheet.

Stirling were held scoreless until the seventh inning when they tied the score on hits by Stewart and Faulkner, a walk to Bell and a hit by Hagerman. They struck again in the eighth when Thompson opened the inning with a single and McMaster followed with a homer to left center. Wright singled and advanced to second on two outs from where he scored on a single by Bell, to make the count 5 to 2.

Stirling will now meet the winner of the Cardiff-Mervale series.

Umpires — Plate, Herb Pointer; bases, Harold Bawden, both of Belleville.

STIRLING TAKES FIRST GAME

Stirling Juveniles got off on the right foot in Norwood on Saturday night last when they defeated the home team in the first game of the Ontario Softball Association play-offs. The game was played before a good crowd of fans and the final score was 8 to 7.

Stewart was on the mound for Stirling and pitched a good brand of ball. He gave up one run in the third, two in the fourth, three in the fifth and one in the seventh, and had five strikeouts to his credit.

The locals got all their runs in two innings, scoring seven in the second and one in the third. Bob Noble hit a grand slam homer in the second to account for four runs.

Lineups

Norwood — Fife, McArthur, Delaney, Crown, Patterson, Long, Rae, Rutherford, Elliott.

Watson -- Faires Nuptials At St. John's

St. John's Anglican Church, Stirling, was the setting for a lovely double-ring wedding, on Saturday, July 29th, at 11.00 a.m., when Mary Louise Janet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Faires, of Stirling, became the bride of Paul Wellington Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Watson, of Belleville, Ontario. The Reverend Canon A. S. McConnell, of St. Thomas Anglican Church, Belleville, and the Reverend F. Downing, of St. John's Anglican Church, Stirling, officiated before an altar adorned with white hydranges and the chancel with white gladioli and blue 'mums.

Miss Helen Morrow, Stirling, rendered the wedding music, and accompanied the soloist, Miss Carol Burgess, of Stirling, in her rendition of "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love."

Given in marriage by her father, the radiant bride was charming in her white brocaded taffeta, full-skirted street-length bridal gown having a fitted bodice, with long, tulip-pointed sleeves. She wore a crown of mother-of-pearl sequins and shoulder-length veil of silk illusion tulle, and carried a bouquet of baby red roses cresting a white Bible with white satin streamers knotted with white stephanotis.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Carol Faires, as matron of honour, attired in sapphire blue chiffon over taffeta, with cap sleeves and molded bodice. The full skirt hung in graceful folds. Her headdress was a white tiara and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mr. Alexander Casey, of Belleville, was groomsman, while the ushers were Messrs Douglas Faires, Stirling, and Harold Bunnett, Belleville.

The reception was held in the banquet room at the Belmont Restaurant, Belleville, where the guests were received by the bride's mother, wearing a gown of seamist-green in linen lace, with white accessories and corsage of yellow rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother, who assisted, was gowned in beige printed silk with white and beige accessories and corsage of yellow rosebuds.

For travelling to New York State and the Adirondacks, the bride wore a three-piece green ensemble with white accessories, and corsage of white roses.

Out-of-town guests were present from Belleville, Weston, Thorold, Corbyville and Stirling.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson will reside at R.R. 1, Corbyville, Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Sine Wed 50 Years

(Ontario Intelligencer)

A honeymoon to the Canadian National Exhibition with a side trip across Lake Ontario to Niagara Falls was recalled by Mr. and Mrs. Karl Sine, 97 Purdy Street, Belleville, who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Wednesday of this week.

"Niagara Falls as a honeymoon spot was just as popular then as it is now," stated Mr. Sine. "And there were attractions there then that have now disappeared."

Natives of the Rawdon Township area, Mr. and Mrs. Sine farmed until 1946. They lived in Campbellford for a few years but have claimed Belleville as their home for the past ten years. They live in an apartment at the home of their son, Bob.

A descendant of United Empire Loyalist stock, Mr. Sine can trace his ancestry back to when his Dutch forebears settled in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Sine is the former Alice Donald, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Donald, farmer in Seymour Township, later moving to Rawdon, where she met her future husband. He is 74, while Mrs. Sine is 71.

Never Bought Tractor

The Sine's quit farming before present-day mechanized farming became the vogue. He says he didn't even get around to buying a tractor while he was farming.

But he has been driving a car since the end of World War I and remembers his first trip to Toronto when highway construction on No. 2 Highway was in its initial stage.

Traffic on today's four-lane super highways is a different thing. Mr. Sine thinks motorists drive too fast and wants nothing to do with driving in a big city.

Members of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Stirling, Mr. and Mrs. Sine now attend church at St. Andrew's in Belleville. Mr. Sine has been a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge in Stirling for the past 54 years, while Mrs. Sine is a member of Laurel Rebekah Lodge, Stirling.

Honoured Wednesday

Wednesday afternoon and evening they were "at home" to their many friends and realtives with an anniversary party at the Odd Fellows Hall in Stirling.

Many congratulatory messages were received including a personal letter from Prime Minister John Diefenbaker.

er.

The couple have six children, two daughters, Mrs. Kenneth Hagerman and Mrs. Ernest Weeks, both of Campbellford; and four sons, Ray and Bob, of Belleville; Allan, of Stirling, and Ivan Sine, Eldorado.

There are 14 grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Mr. Sine's mother, Mrs. Rebecca Sine, now 98, is a patient at the Green Rest Home, Stirling, where she has been bedridden for five years.

Larkin McAvoy Wedding at Stirling

A lovely wedding was solemnized on Saturday, August 12th, at 10.30 a.m. in the Church of St. James the Minor, Stirling, when Mary Agnes McAvoy, of Ivanhoe, daughter of Mrs. Phillip McAvoy, of Ivanhoe, and the late Mr. McAvoy, was united in marriage to Paul David Larkin, of Stoco, son of Mr. Jay Larkin, of Stoco, and the late Mrs. Larkin. The Reverend W. P. Healey, of Marmora, officiated. The acolytes were Timmie Doran and Billy Baker, both of Stirling. Pink and white gladioli adorned the altar and white satin bows marked the guest pews.

Mrs. Frank Long, of Stirling, presided at the organ console, and accompanied the soloist, Mr. Gene Healey, of Oshawa, brother-in-law of the bride, as he sang, before the ceremony, "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother," "Jesus, Jesus, Come To Me" and "Mother At Your Feet We're Kneeling," during the signing of the register.

The radiant bride, given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Daniel McAvoy, of Ivanhoe, was lovely in her full-length gown of nylon tulle over taffeta, featuring a molded bodice complemented by a soft bustle back and round, sequin-trimmed scalloped neckline. The sleeves of French Chantilly lace ended in lily-points over the wrists. She wore a seed pearl-studded headdress with shoulder-tip veil banded with fine Italian lace, and carried a cascade bouquet of yellow Sweetheart roses centred by two white gardenias and trailing ivy.

Her maid of honour, Miss Rita P. McAvoy, a sister of Toronto, and the bridesmaids, Miss Helen M. McAvoy, of Oshawa, and Miss Roseanne McAvoy, Ivanhoe, also sisters of the bride, were gowned alike in pure silk organza in fiesta pink, with square necklines and cap sleeves. The softly-draped bodices were accented at the front by a soft rose, while back streamers, loosely entwined, fell to the hemline. The full skirts were enhanced by wide French illusion lace borders. All carried nosegays of white 'mums encircled by fiesta pink tulle.

The little flower girl, Miss Sandra M. LaChappelle, of Stirling, niece of the bride, wore a pretty frock of Chantilly lace over white taffeta featuring a tiny molded bodice with Peter Pan collar, and bouffant skirt with fiesta-pink sash. A little fiesta pink rosette hat, and nosegay of white baby 'mums encircled by fiesta pink tulle, completed her ensemble.

Mr. Francis Larkin, of Toronto, attended his brother as groomsman, while Mr. Donald Larkin, of Oshawa, brother of the bridegroom, and Mr. Roy LaChappelle, of Stirling, brother-in-law of the bride, were ushers.

The wedding breakfast was held in the I.O.O.F. Hall, Stirling, where 115 guests were present, and the reception later at the bride's home, beautifully adorned with white baskets of mixed gladioli blooms and pink and white streamers, where the guests were shown the wedding gifts.

At the breakfast the bride's table was tastefully appointed with white Irish linen damask, centred by a three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. The bridal bouquets completed the attractive setting.

The bride's mother for her daughter's wedding, wore a sheath gown in beige shade in floral design over taffeta and misted with organza, and complemented with a fitted jacket, beige and green accessories and corsage of yellow roses. The bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. William Larkin, assisted in the receiving line, attired in a navy blue and mauve floral sheath, with complementing accessories and corsage of yellow roses.

For the wedding trip to Flint, Michigan; Detroit, Niagara Falls, Buffalo and Algonquin Park, the bride wore a beige linen sheath, with beige hat and gloves, green accessories and corsage of tinted gardenias.

Upon their return the young people will reside at 41 Ontario Street, Oshawa, Ontario.

Guests were present from Belleville, Oshawa, Stirling, Winnipeg, Midland, Read, Stoco, Toronto, Tweed and the surrounding districts.

The bride, previous to her marriage, was entertained at a linen and china shower held at the home of Mrs. Gerald Kerby, of Ivanhoe; at a miscellaneous shower at Whitby with Miss Enna Williams as hostess; at a presentation of an electric coffee percolator from the traffic department of the Bell Telephone, Oshawa, where the bride is employed.

The bride's gift to her attendants were crystal bead necklaces, with matching earrings, and to her flower girl, a sterling silver cross.

The bridegroom's gifts to his ushers and groomsman were gold cuff links and tie clips.

Canadian Artist Visits Co. Museum

One of Canada's leading artists, Manly MacDonald, was a recent visitor to the Hastings County Museum on Church Street, Belleville.

A native of Point Anne who now lives for about half the year in Toronto, Mr. MacDonald was impressed by the newly opened museum. He was particularly interested in the early district maps, one of which shows the land worked a century ago by his grandfather.

Also attracting his attention, according to museum curator Mary Lu Toms, was the Couldery gallery of European and Oriental furniture, paintings, china and silver. Mr. MacDonald was very interested in the paintings currently on display and was shown the large collection of stored paintings by museum chairman Gerald Boyce.

Before leaving, Mr. MacDonald promised to return in the near future and bring his wife, who is also very interested in historical articles.

The County Museum is located at 240 Church Street in Belleville and is open Monday and Friday evenings from 7 to 10, and every other day from 2 to 5 in the afternoon.

Since the opening of the museum earlier this month, about 500 persons have visited the project.

Among recent visitors to the museum were the following persons: Mrs. R. W. Camm and Frank, Marion and Richard Camm, of Stirling, and Edna and Stanley Prest, of Ivanhoe.

Baby Shower

On Wednesday evening of last week a number of ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Maurice Clancy for a baby shower, given in honour of the two youngest members of the community, Janice Elizabeth, baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Martin and Ronald Gordon, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Clarke.

The party had been arranged by the hostess, Mrs. Clancy, with Mrs. Keith Johnson and Mrs. Albert Jones co-hostesses.

On arrival Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Clarke were each presented with a pretty corsage of red carnations with appropriate pink and blue ribbons.

Mrs. Johnson presided over a short programme as follows:

Reading, "Nobody Knows But Mother," by Mrs. William McKeown; followed by another reading, "A Fellow's Mother," by Mrs. Forde Stapley. A scrambled word contest, "Things For Baby," was conducted by Mrs. Bert Reide. Mrs. Bruce Stapley and Mrs. Murray Martin each had the correct list and were awarded small prizes.

Mrs. Johnson read an address and Mrs. Jones, on behalf of all the group, presented Mrs. Martin and Janice with a chromium plated high chair and lovely pink nylon baby dress.

A second address was read by Mrs. Clancy and Mrs. Jones presented Mrs. Clarke and Ronald with a pair of sheets, two sleep and play sets and a purse of money.

Both Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Clarke graciously expressed their thanks for the lovely and useful gifts.

August 23rd was Mrs. Forde Stapley's 17th wedding anniversary and she was presented with a pink corsage and a pretty china cup and saucer for which she thanked her friends.

All joined in singing, "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

The hostess and co-hostesses served dainty refreshments of sandwiches and a variety of fancy cookies along with a fragrant cup of tea.

FIELD TOMATOES

Fresh Tomatoes are never cheaper nor better eating than in September when they literally flow from nearby fields to our local stores and markets. Vine-ripened under a summer sun, field tomatoes are meaty, colourful, full of flavour and vitamins; so don't resist them, eat them to your heart's content.

The Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture suggests that you:

Select tomatoes which are plump and have a smooth, well-coloured skin.

Store ripe tomatoes in the refrigerator to keep them from over-ripening.

Hold green tomatoes at room temperature, out of the sun, so that they ripen evenly.

Use tomatoes which have healed growth cracks or scars at the blossom end for slicing, for tossed salads or in caseroles. They have fine flavour in spite of these defects.

Tomatoes are primarily a "salad vegetable" and September days are still warm enough for serving coolly refreshing and lusciously juicy tomato salads. The large, meaty tomatoes are ideal for stuffing with poultry, meat, egg, cottage cheese, potato or fish salads. Three simple and attractive ways to prepare the tomatoes for stuffing are:

(1) Wash tomatoes, cut a cone from blossom end and scoop out half of the centre. If tomato wobbles cut a thin slice from stem end. Invert and drain well before filling with a chilled salad mixture.

(2) Wash tomatoes, cut in 2 or 3 thick slices. Place chilled salad mixture between the slices.

(3) Wash tomatoes. Make 5 or 6 slices from top down to, but not through, stem end. Fill between the attached slices with a chilled salad mixture. Tomato spreads out like a fan.

When the school bell signals the beginning of classes, it is time to go back to serving regular hot dinners. Fresh tomatoes make a quick and easy dinner vegetable. Here's something new, quick and something very delicious for your first fall dinner. It is Herbed Tomatoes, tested for you by the Consumer Section in Ottawa.

Herbed Tomatoes

6 ripe, medium tomatoes
¼ cup butter
¾ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon brown sugar
. cup diced celery
3 tablespoons finely chopped chives or green onions
3 tablespoons finely chopped parsley
¼ to ½ teaspoon crushed oregano

Remove core from tomatoes. Melt butter in a frying pan, add salt, pepper and brown sugar. Place tomatoes in pan, cored side down. Cover closely and simmer 5 minutes. Turn tomatoes and spoon butter mixture over them. Add remaining ingredients, cover closely and continue simmering until tomatoes are just tender, 8 to 12 minutes. Carefully lift tomatoes into serving dish and spoon remaining mixture over top.

Six servings.

NOTE — If tomatoes are firm fleshed, they may be blanched and peeled before cooking.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

PRIVATE TV NETWORK COMING

Canada will soon have a private television network. The CBC and some of its champions are crying that this can lead to disastrous results for Canadian Broadcasting. What they mean, of course, is that it might be disastrous for the CBC. But the CBC and Broadcasting are not necessarily synonymous.

John Public wants news, information and entertainment. He does not care too much whether it is provided by a tax-suported network or a tax-paying network. He is not likely to care about the howls of anguish from the CBC.

When private television was first allowed in the major Canadian centres, the CBC people predicted dire results. The results, however, have been good. In Winnipeg, at least, the CBC smartened up considerably when faced with competition from Channel 7. The announcers talked to their viewers on a far more friendly and natural basis. The CBC had to consider the viewers if it wanted to retain decent ratings.

In Montreal, recently, I watched CFCF-TV, the new private TV station. The programming was lively, imaginative, and well larded with Canadiana. The announcers were bright young Canadians, doing a thoroughly professional and sincere job. Yet the station was costing the taxpayer nothing — indeed, it pays taxes for the right to operate.

While it may be true that the Toronto private station had a slower, more fumbling start, it is said to be operating quite well now. In a matter of months, the private broadcasters seem to have at least rivalled if they have not surpassed the CBC, which has had many years of experience and millions of tax dollars to go on.

The CBC has also had a great deal of advertising money. And it is in this area that it may deservedly feel the pinch. For too long, in spite of its monopoly position, it took an unrealistic attitude toward what advertisers ought to pay. It seemed altogether to ready to make "deals" which allowed sponsors to pick up only part of the tab for expensive programmes. This sort of rate cutting doesn't bring success or respect in the advertising world. It does considerable harm to other advertising media, such as magazines and newspapers.

TV may be one of the great methods of advertising. That remains to be seen. Some of its original impact, due to the novelty of a new form, has disappeared. Many larger advertisers have returned to the old, reliable printed word. Local advertisers are finding TV advertising costly. It seems to be a media only the larger advertiser can afford to experiment with.

For those reasons, the private stations are wise to link themselves into networks and concentrate on satisfying the large advertiser with a budget big enough to experiment. And the BBG, in the public interest, will do well to give them a fair opportunity in the network field.

The amount spent by Canada's electrical manufacturing industry on raw materials in a year ($467 million in 1960) has doubled in 10 years.

Madoc To Get New Vocat.-Technical School For Area

At a special meeting of the Board of the Centre Hastings High School Area and the Advisory Vocational Committee, held in July, S. B. Coon & Son, Toronto, was engaged as architects for a new Centre Hastings Area Vocational-Technical School to be built at Madoc.

The new school is expected to provide the following additional facilities at Madoc High School: two typewriting rooms; 1 business machines' room; 2 science laboratories; a sewing room; an auto-mechanics' shop; an electrical shop; a building construction shop; a drafting room; a boys' occupational training area, and a similar one for girls; a library classroom; 3 standard classrooms; a gymnasium; a cafeteria; a new administration wing; additional washrooms; a furnace room, and other areas necessary to operate such a school efficiently.

With these facilities, it will be possible to offer the full commercial and technical courses, as well as the academic course.

It is hoped to turn the first sod for the new addition this Fall. Construction is expected to begin the first of next year, and it will take a year to complete. The school should be in full operation not later than September 1963. The cost is estimated at $750,000, and when all equipment is added, this amount will probably increase to over a million dollars.

Poet's Lair Abbey Dawn To Close Sept. 5th

Abbey Dawn, a wooded retreat where the thunderbird is still revered, closes its gates to the public on September 5th.

After 25 years of collecting Indian lore, preserving tracts of land as a bird sanctuary and artists' hideaway, Wallace Havelock Robb, curator, poet and authority on Indian lore, announced the closing this week.

The sanctuary, five miles east of Kingston off No. 2 Highway, was established when Mr. Robb became fascinated in the Indian legends and in the artifacts he found.

What Others Say

SOVIET PROPAGANDISTS AT THE U.N.

(The Letter-Review)

Principal use of the UN sometimes seems to be to provide a platform for the Soviet Union and its satellites to voice their criticisms of the West and particularly of the U.S. At the special session of the General Assembly called to discuss the current dispute between France and Tunisia, the Soviet representative took the opportunity to attack the system of military bases held by the U.S. and her allies throughout the world. The implication was that the Soviet was the friend of former colonial peoples emerging from colonialism, while the former parent countries of the colonies, who, as the Soviet propagandists conveniently forget, helped them to develop politically and become fit for self-government are now their enemies.

In the Tunisian debate the U.S. was clearly hampered in replying to this type of attack. As a friend of both Tunisia and France, the U.S. had to be tactful in any official statement she might issue. The situation was not made any easier for the U.S. or the other friends of France by the decision of the French to boycott the meeting. Thus the Afro-Asian bloc and the Communists seemed to dominate the debate.

Possibly no great harm was done. The Soviet line is so well known by now that even the newest members of the UN must find it boring to hear. Whatever the feelings of former colonies may be towards their former parent countries, they are unlikely to consider that the best use they could make of their new independence would be to surrender it to the communists. They will still need capital and skills from their former rulers if their countries are to develop as the new native rulers hope, and they are not likely to get any help from the communists without a good many entangling strings attached to it. It must be assumed that the black and brown statesmen now representing their countries at the UN are as astute in seeing where their countries' best interests lie as the white or red representatives of other countries.

Taylor Franklin Vice-President AOTS Clubs

Fred Saunderson, of London, Ont., Saturday was elected National President of the United Church AOTS Men's Clubs at their 2nd National Convention at the University of British Columbia, Vancouver.

Mr. Saunders heads an organization of some 601 clubs with 18,000 members located from Vancouver Island to Newfoundland.

National Vice-Presidents elected include Kenneth Waddell, of Ottawa, and Taylor Franklin, of Belleville.

THE BIBLE TODAY

From around the world news of increased activity in Scripture translation, printing and distribution reveals growing interest in the Word of God. From India comes word that the Rev. W. J. Culshaw, translation advisor to the Bible Society of India and Ceylon, organized a meeting of 20 translators representing 11 languages.

In Italy, the Scripture Gift Mission provided 60,000 Scripture booklets for distribution in Rome at the Olympic Games last year.

From Lebanon it is reported that demand for the revised Arabic text of the Book of Proverbs, the Sermon on the Mount and the Epistle to the Ephesians has been unexpectedly high. Publication of the Christmas Story and the Passion Story is now being planned.

In Luxenbourg, authorization has been given for Mr. Siegenthaler, a Bible Colporteur, loaned to the Belgian Bible Society by the Swiss Bible Society, to work in that country.

The Rev. W. Van der Bent, the new agent of the Netherlands Bible Sociey in New Guinea, has opened a Christian book shop in Hollandia where Bibles, New Testaments and Portions, in Dutch as well as in many of the vernacular languages, are now available.

In Venezuela 120,000 copies of the Christmas Portion were circulated last winter. The supermarket chain stores ordered 15,000 copies for distribution in Macaraibo, and 5,000, each with a special imprint went to the airports on Caracas and Macaraibo. Each of the 11,000 holders of Post Office boxes in Caracas received a copy.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

MORE TOP QUALITY HOGS

Increased premiums on top quality hogs authorized last October have resulted in an increase in Grade A and a decrease in Grade C hogs marketed in Canada during the first six months of this year.

Commenting on the situation, Elgin Senn, chief of the grading section, Livestock Division, Canada Department of Agriculture, said that the government's decision to increase the premium on Grade A carcasses and drop the premium paid on Grade B hogs appears to be having the desired effect.

"These grading figures" he said, "indicate that Canadian hog producers are making a worthwhile effort to produce more of the long lean bacon-type hogs that produce the kind of products that competition from other kinds of meat requires.

"Canadian housewives object to pork products that are fat, and the improvement in hog grades means more top quality lean hams, bacon, pork chops, etc. to meet the growing demand for lean meats.

"We must continue to improve Canadian hog quality also if our Canadian pork products are to hold their position, as high quality Canadian products on the U.S. market."

He said that in the first six months of 1961, compared with the same period the previous year, there was an increase in Canada of two percent in the number of Grade A carcasses marketed and the improvement was reflected in every province. The greatest improvement, he pointed out, was in Alberta where Grade A hogs jumped 4.7 percent to a total of 26.3 percent.

CATTLE POPULATION UP

With the exception of lamb, which showed a 4 percent decrease from last year, Canada's cattle population has reached a record high of 12.1 million head, according to a recent livestock population survey released by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. It is claimed that the increase is due to a continued build-up of the beef cow herd, as well as to larger steer, beef heifer and calf herds across Canada.

Hog Forecasts

The Canada Department of Agriculture has issued its quarterly forecast of hog marketings:

It is expected that the increase in hog marketings will begin during the present quarter. The recent drought in Western Canada, with its immediate effects on feed grain supplies, may bring about a reduction in autumn farrowings, and the above preditcions may prove to be optimistic for the first six months of 1962.

Weed of the Week

CYPRESS SPURGE

This weed is at times also called "Graveyard Weed", due to the fact that having been planted as a flower in cemeteries and left unattended, it has spread to roadsides and adjoining fields. In parts of Otnario it is also called Braeside weed, and local history states that it had been introduced by early settlers from Europe as a special garden plant. It spread to rugh land when forest growth had been removed. Many present infestations came from the use of gravel and fill, taken from gravel pits to roadsides and used as fill for new construction.

Cypress Spurge belongs to the same family as Leafy Spurge but it rarely grows more than 10 inches in height. The stems are in dense clusters with many slender, greenish-blue leaves. The top is flat and has yellow flowers. It spreads from seed and numerous underground root-stalks, states the Field Crops Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture. This weed blossoms very early in June and seed is distributed from then to November. Due to the fact that very little other vegetation will persist in the same location, Cypress Spurge will take over from its seed and extensive root system.

Our first recommendation must be a warning that Cypress Spurge should never be used as a border plant in gardens or otherwise. Repeated close cutting to stop seed setting will help to control its spread. Small patches can be grubbed out and it is seldom found in cultivated fields where a short rotation is practiced. Repeated use of Brush-kill at from 16 to 32 ounces per acre will help in the control, but it will reappear if these infestations are not resprayed frequently. This plant is considered objectionable to cattle and they rarely pasture spots that are infested. Soil sterilization has ben tried but the cost factor is prohibitive in many cases in lighter soils where it is usually found. Small patches must receive immediate attention, as this weed cannot be left to spread.

Furrow and Fallow By Fairbairn

Farmers are having their problems in both production and marketing this year. This is not unusual but the weather has accentuated production problems all over the country. In Ontario, farmers in northern areas were just finishing their haying about the middle of August while many farmers in the south were getting a second crop off about the same time. However, the abundance of moisture has brought excellent pastures for the benefit of both dairy and beef producers and hay aftermath should provide good grazing in both north and south — in the south, even third growth. It should also mean pretty condition on feeders for those interested and don't forget the northern Ontario feeder sales in the next two months.

On the marketing side, there isn't too much to report—aside from what has already been sald about a fluid milk marketing scheme and the possibility of a second plan for the other three milk groups. Egg Producers are still looking into the auction method of selling but are not talking — grain corn growers are working toward a vote on a marketing plan during the winter and we've heard nothing from the beef producers.

At the moment, your columnist is involved in the Dairy Princess competition at the CNE and at the risk of losing our job, we want to make some comments about it. A great many people work very hard to make this DAIRY PRINCESS CONTEST possible — and many farm organization people do a terriffic job throughout the province — but who reaps the benefit? This type of competition helps the contestants, of course, and they get prizes, but isn't the original objective to aquaint the general public with the milk industry — and the value of milk as a food It is sponsored by the Ontario Department of Agriculture, the Ontario Milk Producers Co-Ordinating Board, the CNE and the Toronto Telegram. The latter two get their money's worth out of it but do the first two? There are also a number of manufacturers of dairy equipment involved — and other folk — but they don't push themselves.

We feel that this annual competition could become a real promotion for milk if all the cooks who are stirring the broth would step back and take a good look at it. There are some really great ambassadors for dairy farmers in the girls who compete but are they being used to best possible advantage? Why don't all the cooks get together and appoint a manager for the contest — somebody who could co-ordinate all the efforts and come up with a really good PR effort for the dairy industry? The elements of an effective campaign are all there and we have an idea that a majority of the people involved would be happy if this could be done. Although it grieves this farm writer to say it, we think it is the farm people who are preventing such a development.

Today's Tidbit

It's back to school for the young fellow who wrote this on an exam paper: "Medical men have found there are more dead than there were."

Canadian Pine Trees Make Good Hedges

Canadians should make more use of their native pines for clipped hedges. Red pines particularly, make excellent dark-green hedges of soft texture and form a splendid background for the most colorful garden displays.

This is the opinion of R. W. Oliver, an expert on landscaping and ornamentals for many years at the Canada Department of Agriculture's Central Experimental Farm in Ottawa.

To prove his point, Mr. Oliver told of a hedge of red pine planted at Ottawa in 1889. It was kept seven feet high and about as wide by clipping once annually, in late June and remained in good condition for 70 years.

The native white pine, he said, makes a hedge of softer appearance and mid-green colour but is subject to white pine blister rust, for which there is no cure.

Scots pine grows so rapidly that a hedge of it has a thin, open appearance. The expensive Mugho pine makes an excellent low, wide hedge.

In planting the pine hedge, Mr. Oliver recommended using trees about two feet high, planted two and a half or three feet apart in a single row. They transplant best about the end of August but early May is satisfactory in the Ottawa district. Leaving a ball of roots and earth about 18 inches in diameter around the roots saves them from being dried out by sun or wind. White pines prefer light sandy soil; red pines will stand clay loam but neither does well on heavy or poorly drained soil.

Spread soaker peat moss in the bottom of the trench and fill in with good sandy topsoil, packing firmly with the feet or settling with water.

In the latter half of June, after the young tops (candles) have reached their season's growth, cut them to half length with a sharp knife, on the sides as well as on the top of the hedge. In a few years, when the hedge thickens, clipping can be done easier with hedge shears.

Tractor Safety On Highway

Haying and harvest times are the periods when farm tractors are frequently driven on highways and gravel roads. To avoid accidents Hal Wright, safety specialist with the Ontario Department of Agriculture, suggests the following measures:

Plan ahead in order to cut down to a minimum the amount of travel on heavily travelled roads. Use side roads even if it takes a bit longer.

Keep the tractor under control. Slow down for curves and leave the tractor in gear on downgrades.

Don't let children or young teenagers handle a tractor on the highway.

Have a strict "no rider" rule.

Clear the brush in the vicinity of the lanes and field gates to improve visibility.

Use red flags and approved lighting to give warning to motorists of the dangers of slow moving vehicles.

Courtesy prevents accidents. Pull off the pavement, when feasible, to let the automobile traffic pass safely.

Spare Fan Belt Vital To Trip

A fan belt is a small, inexpensive appendage to the working body of an automobile. Try to drive it without it! This tough, sinewy little belt of rubber and fabric is doing a giant job under the car's hood. Generator, fan and cooling system depend on it. If it fails (and it can), a vehicle's lights, heat and power can fail with it. The Canadian Highway Safety Council urges every motorist to carry a spare fan belt, always:

From the Rubber Association of Canada, the Council learns that a fan belt gets extra work to do in summer driving. It's muscles can be flexed so much that it is strained, or slips a little, or fails completely under stress. The cost of replacement is small — if the failure occurs near a garage. A spare belt costs far less than a night service call, a towing charge or a missed appointment.

Timely Tips

Early September is the time to spray for weeds in grass pastures, advises r. C. M. Switzer, OAC botanist. Bienniels like blueweed, burdock, chicory, golden rod, ox-eye daisy, wild carrot, Canada and bull thistle can be controlled. Apply 1 pound of 2,4-D acid as an ester in 20 to 30 gallons water per acre. The cost: $1.40 an acre. Follow-up treatments in the spring might be a good idea. One caution is this treatment could harm your legumes.

Better hurry to sample soils on your hay and pasture fields to be fertilized this fall, suggests Prof. Ted Heeg, OAC soil scientist. The recommendations can still be back in time to get the fertilizer on by October first. Take a good average sample of the field — 10 to 15 samples from a 10 acre field mixed together for a composite sample is about right. A precaution: Don't take samples from dead furrows or areas where an old hay or straw stack has stood.

Clean up rats before winter, advises Prof. R. H. Ozburn, OAC Zoologist. Destroy rubbish piles such as any old cartons, boxes, and old lumber — they could serve as a home for rats. Pile lumber away from livestock feeding areas. Keep scrap metal piles up on stands at least 5 or 6 inches off the ground. Remember, no other method of rat control can be successful if their nests and breeding places aren't destroyed.

Read and heed the warning on barn spray containers, cautions Dr. Howard Neely, extension veterinarian at O.V.C. Barn sprays aren't meant to be applied directly to cattle; it will make them sick and they could die. An affected animal will usually slobber and the eyes become swollen. Frequently the tongue hangs out of the mouth and the animal may shiver. Call your veterinary immediately — he can give an effective antidote.

Cooking Comments

Ripe, red, juicy tomatoes — they're wonderful in tossed salads. Add them at the last minute. The home economics specialists at Macdonald Institute suggest cutting them the French way. This means vertical wedges instead of horizontal slices. The tomatoes will lose less juice when cut this way.

* * *

If you use a slight taste of garlic in a salad, try lightly rubbing a garlic clove around the salad bowl before you put the salad it.

* * *

Never soak your wooden salad bowl in water. As soon as possible after you use it, wash it in lukewarm water and then rinse with cold water, suggests the food specialists at Macdonald Institute. Then wipe immediately with a clean, dry towel. Your salad bowl will look better and last longer with this proper treatment.

* * *

To keep the bloom on peaches, try this method. Pour boiling water on the peaches (blanch) for 1 minute. Then dip in cold water. The skin will come off very easily, and the rosy hoe will remain on the peach.

CONSERVATION NEWS

THE 1961 DEER SEASONS FOR THE TWEED DISTRICT

The 1961 deer seasons for the Tweed District have been out for some time. For those who may not have seen them, the seasons are as follows:

Southern Section — November 6th to 11th, inclusive.

Northern Section — November 6th to 18th, inclusive

The dividing line between the northern and southern sections runs east along No. 7 Highway through Hastings, Lennox and Addington and Frontenac Counties to the junction of No. 7 and No. 38 Highways. The line runs south from there along No. 38. At Godfrey the line runs east along County Road No. 8, which connects Godfrey with Westport.

Last year the Department attempted to determine the number of hunters and the size of their kill for the Tweed District. Some hunters were asked at the check stations where they bought their licences, while others were contacted by letter to determine where they hunted. For the portion of the district north of No. 7 Highway it is estimated 13,178 hunters were in the woods during the 1960 deer season. Their kill amounted to 3,043 deer. Hunter populations and deer kills will be measured each year from now on to determine the trend in the annual kill in relation to changing hunting pressures.

Humour

"Doctor," the owner of a great Dane dog told the vet, "you've got to do something. My dog does nothing but chase those small foreign cars."

"Well, that's only natural. Most dogs chase cars."

"Yes," the owner agreed, "but my dog catches them and buries them in the back yard."

TIPS ON HOW TO MARKET YOUR HOGS EARLY

Cutting down on time to market and feed to market means greater hog profits. One of the surest ways to cut down your total feed cost is to creep feed your baby pigs with Purina Baby Pig Chow and Purina Pig Startena.

Get your baby pigs away to a flying start without setback with these "Fast-Start Twins." They supplement the sow's milk and contain built-in vitamins, minerals, and antibiotic fortification needed for fast sturdy growth.

Creep feeding your baby pigs with Purina's "Fast-Start Twins" takes advantage of their early urge-to-grow. This is important to you because it lets you take advantage of their early feed converting efficiency. It takes less than 2 pounds of feed to put on a pound of gain when they're young. As your pigs grow older, they just can't make as efficient gains at such low cost. Give your baby pigs a quick start on the road to market by creep feeding Purina Baby Pig Chow and Purina Pig Startena. You'll increase your profits by sending more pigs per litter to market, and you'll keep up the sow's condition; too.

See us about the complete Purina Hog Program—the Program which helps hog growers produce more Grade A pork at low cost—at the Store with the Checkerboard Sign.

Accidents Can Be Exciting

Are you bored with it all? Are you looking for a new horizon? Have an accident.

Accidents can open up a whole new exciting world for you. You'll see places and experience sensations like way out there.

You'll meet pretty young nurses — and probing doctors.

You'll learn how emergency wards, operating rooms, surgeons and other specialties function — first hand.

You may get a stub or scar which will make an ideal conversation piece.

You can write a best seller on, "How I Was Brought Back from the Brink," or "How a Cripple Can Up His Income."

You may get your name in the paper. Maybe even get a headline like "Drunk Runs into School Bus."

You can collect on that accident insurance you've been pouring money down the drain on so long.

You may deduct your time lost from work on your income tax return.

You can sit around the house while recuperating and catch up on all the daytime TV shows.

You can solicit sympathy you'd never get otherwise, maybe even from the kids and spouse.

Your physical system will be injected with all sorts of drugs and stimulants.

The wife might get to go to work, the older kids drop out of school, and so enrich their experiences.

The doctor may have put you on a regimen to cure some of your bad habits.

You might have to learn a new trade to replace the old one you can't continue and didn't like anyway.

So live modern. Have an accident. Experience can be a good teacher — if you live through it.

Special Summertime Sandwich

Thanks to the Earl of Sandwich, a seventeenth century English nobleman, sandwich is a household word. He liked meat between slices of bread, and thus began the famous sandwich as it is known today — a combination of bread and filling. It no longer is necessary to use only slices of bread for sandwiches, however.

Here is a sandwich loaf idea from Macdonald Institute, Guelph.

Split a loaf of French bread lengthwise. Spread the opened sides with softened butter and mayonnaise. On the bottom half of the loaf place leaf lettuce and then a thin layer of spanish onions. The next layer is sliced tomatoes.. Cover these generously with sliced Canadian cheddar cheese Salami, and then ham, topped with lettuce, complete the gigantic filling. Put about five toothpicks in the loaf to hold it together and then cut into serving-size pieces. It should serve 5 to 6 people.

Serve this knife-and-fork sandwich with pickle slices, potato chips. and a tall glass of cool milk. Watermelon wedges are a good finale for this summer meal.

Fearlessness is the mother of confidence.
